3.1.4 These have been distributed to the Association members and school boards and are accessible on the NZSBA and Association websites.

3.1.4 NZSBA and the Association trust that the parties to this agreement will make use of these guidelines as they work to adopt policies and practices to reflect their employment obligations to Māori teachers and their obligations to recognise the aims and aspirations of Māori.

3.2 Appointments

3.2.1 In appointing the person best suited to the position the employer will have regard to the experience, qualifications and abilities relevant to the position and such other relevant matters as it determines. Good employer and equal employment opportunities principles and responsibilities will be applied and demonstrated in appointment procedures.

3.2.2 Advertising and Appointment

 - (iii) At the conclusion of a specified project.
- (b) Before a teacher and employer agree that the employment of the employee will end in a way specified in clause 3.2.3(a), the employer must have genuine reasons based on reasonable grounds for specifying that the employment of the teacher is to end in that way.

- (c) The following reasons are not genuine reasons for the purposes of clause 3.2.3(b):
 - (i) To exclude or limit the rights of the employee under the Employment Relations Act 2000;
 - (ii) To establish the suitability of the employee for permanent employment.

3.2.4 Job sharing arrangements

- (a) Where two people apply to share any advertised permanent full-time position, including a position above the base scale, and the employer is satisfied that the job share application is best suited for appointment and that the arrangements for sharing the position are acceptable to it then the position will be filled as a job share position and the applicants appointed.
- (b) Teachers who are job sharing are entitled to the same terms and conditions of employment as permanent full-time teachers except that salary will be paid on the appropriate pro-rata basis.
- (c) Where a teacher who is job sharing resigns or is removed from the position the other teacher will elect to:
 - (i) Take up the entire full-time position; or
 - (ii) Find another sharer acceptable to the employer for the same or a different proportion of time as previously; or

 - (i) Elect to relieve in the vacant slot; or
 - (ii) Find another sharer acceptable to the employer who would be a reliever; or
 - (iii) Take leave also, in which case the employer may appoint a reliever.
- (e) Where it is proposed to vary the agreed proportions of time in a position the job sharers will give one month's notice to the employer of their wish to do so, provided that no changes to such proportions of time will be made without the consent of the employer.
- (f) Where the holder of a permanent full-time position wishes to job share that teacher's position and the employer is satisfied with the job share arrangements, and the teachers are suitable, they will be appointed without advertising.

3.2.5 Relievers

A reliever may be temporarily employed in a teaching position during that teacher's absence (e.g. while on leave, or attending in-service courses or outdoor education). See clause 1.8 (j).

3.2A Start of Year

- 3.2A.1 Regardless of the first day schools are open for instruction in Term 1, for normal pay and employment purposes the start of the school year is 28 January for those teachers that are employed for that year, except for teachers being employed for the first time in a state or integrated school, or being employed after a break in service, their start day is as advised to payroll by the employer.

3.3 Teacher Competence

Note: Refer to clauses 4.2.4 and 3.5 of this agreement for additional guidance on the application of these provisions.

- 3.3.1 Questions of competence should be handled in a manner which seeks to protect the mana and dignity of the teacher concerned.
- 3.3.2 The employer will provide reasonable opportunities for appropriate and effective professional development for all teachers.
- 3.3.3
 - (a) Where there are matters of competence which are causing concern in respect of any employee the employee concerned will be advised as early as possible.
 - (b) The teacher will be advised of their right to seek whānau, family, professional and/or Association support in relation to matters of competence and to be represented at any stage.
- 3.3.4 An appropriate assistance and personal guidance programme to assist that employee will be put in place.
- 3.3.5 When that assistance and personal guidance has not remedied the situation, then:
 - (a) The teacher will be advised in writing of the specific matter(s), in relation to the relevant section(s) of Supplement 1, causing concern and of the ways that such concerns can be remedied. The teacher will be advised of their right to consult the Association and of the right to be represented by it at any stage of the process.
 - (b) The teacher is to be given a reasonable opportunity, normally 10 school weeks, to remedy the matter(s) of concern that have been identified. It is recognised that there may be circumstances where a timeframe of less or more than 10 school weeks will be reasonable. The teacher is to be advised of the actual timeframe for the necessary improvement to be achieved and of the monitoring or guidance that will be provided.
 - (c) At the end of this timeframe an assessment is made as to whether or not the teacher has remedied the matter(s) causing concern. The process and result of any evaluation is to be recorded in writing by the employer and sighted and signed by the teacher.
 - (d) No action will be taken by the employer on a report until the teacher has had reasonable time to comment (in writing or orally or both) to the employer.
 - (e) If the teacher has failed to remedy the matter(s) causing concern then they may be dismissed without notice and paid one month's salary in lieu; or if a holder of units the teacher may be reduced in status and salary if the circumstances warrant such a reduction rather than a dismissal; or if appointed to a Kāhui Ako Teacher role under clause 4.22, 4.23 or 4.24, and the competency issues relate to that role, then the teacher may be removed from that role and lose the associated allowance if the circumstances warrant it rather than be dismissed from their substantive position.
- 3.3.6 A copy of any report to the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand (or its successor) arising under clause 3.3.5 will be made available to the teacher.

3.4 Teacher Conduct and Discipline

Note: Refer to clause 3.5 of this agreement for additional guidance on the application of these provisions.

- 3.4.1 Where a breach of discipline appears to have occurred, the employer will determine whether disciplinary procedures should be initiated. Where the employer considers it appropriate it will make initial enquiries to establish whether the disciplinary procedures should be initiated. In some cases, where the facts are clear and acknowledged, resolution may be achieved informally by discussion between the parties without the need for initiating the disciplinary procedures. Questions of conduct or discipline should be handled in a manner which as far as possible protects the mana and dignity of the teacher concerned. Teachers may seek whānau, family, professional and/or Association support in relation to such matters.
- 3.4.2 The teacher will be informed of any allegation of breach of discipline and of their right to consult the Association and of the right to be represented by it at any stage.
- 3.4.3 Where an employer decides to initiate formal disciplinary procedures against a teacher, the following principles are to be observed:
- (a) The employer or its agent will advise the teacher in writing of the reason for the disciplinary procedures being initiated, invite the teacher to respond in writing, and advise the teacher of their right to request Association assistance and/or representation at any stage.
 - (b) Before any substantive disciplinary action is taken, an investigation must be undertaken by the employer. The teacher will be invited to attend any such investigation and to make a statement concerning the matter either personally or through a representative.
 - (c) Notwithstanding clause 3.4.3(b) above if the employer is satisfied that the welfare and interests of any student attending the school or of any teacher at the school so requires the employer may at any time before the matter has finally been disposed of either:
 - (i) Suspend the teacher
(Note: suspension would normally be on pay except in exceptional circumstances); or
 - (ii) Transfer the teacher to other duties.
 - (d) Where a breach of discipline is held to have occurred, the employer will not impose any penalty on the teacher without first:
 - (i) Giving the teacher the opportunity to make representations to it; and
 - (ii) Taking into account any period of suspension already imposed.
 - (e) In the case of a finding of serious misconduct the employer may dismiss the teacher without notice.
- 3.4.4 Where a teacher has been suspended, and subsequently a breach of discipline is held not to have been proved, the teacher will, unless the teacher has already resigned, be entitled forthwith to resume teaching duties.
- 3.4.5 The following are examples of matters that may warrant disciplinary action. This is not an exhaustive list nor is it intended that every such matter listed here must always be treated as a disciplinary matter. Each case must be assessed on its individual merits.
- (a) Disobedience of lawful orders or instructions.
 - (b) Negligence, carelessness or indolence in carrying out their duties as a teacher.
 - (c) Gross inefficiency as a teacher.
 - (d) Misuse or failure to take proper care of school property or equipment in their custody or charge.

- (e) Absence from duty without valid excuse.
- (f) Conduct in their capacity as a teacher or otherwise which is unbecoming to a member of the teaching service.

3.5 Resolving Conflict in a Māori Context

3.5.1 Ngā Kōrero me ngā Tikanga

- (a) Me tuku reta atu ki te kaimahi hei whakamārama atu i ngā raruraru kua puta noa. Mehemea he pai ki te kaimahi rāua tahi ko tōna tumuaki (hei māngai mō te Poari ā-Kura), e āhei ana ki te whakahaere tonu i ngā whakaritenga i raro i ngā tikanga Māori.
- (b) Anei rā ētahi momo tikanga hei kōwhiringa mā rātou:
 - (i) He huihuinga kei te marae;
 - (ii) He whakawhiti kōrero kanohi ki te kanohi;
 - (iii) Ka hui mai te whānau hei tuarā mō te katoa; ā
 - (iv) Ka hui mai ngā kaumātua me ngā kuia hei ārahi hei tohutohu i a rātou katoa.
- (c) Mēnā ka whakaaetia e te kaimahi rāua ko tōna tumuaki (hei māngai mō te Poari ā-Kura) ō rāua kaihautū rānei, kia oti pai ai te kaupapa, mā rāua mā ngā kaihautū rānei e haina ngā whakaaetanga i tuhia. Makaia atu tētahi kape o ngā whakaaetanga nei ki te kōnae whaiaro o te kaimahi.
- (d) He māmā noa iho ēnei whakawhiringa mehemea e hiahia ana tētahi taha kia waiho tārewa ake ngā tikanga Māori kia huri kē ia ki ētahi (te katoa rānei) o ngā whakaritenga, arā 3.3 me 3.4 e whai ake nei. Engari, mehemea ka huri kē atu i ngā tikanga Māori, ehara tērā i te tino raruraru kia oti hē rawa ngā whakaritenga katoa. Ina hoki kia tahuri mai tētahi taha ki 3.3 me 3.4 i raro nei, me tuhituhi hei whakamārama ki tērā atu taha.

Discussions in a Māori Context

- (a) The teacher must be advised in writing of the specific matter(s) causing concern. The teacher and employer may, depending on the nature of the complaint, agree to attempt to deal with a complaint by it being heard in a Māori context and manner.
- (b) A Māori context and manner relates to the following:
 - (i) Meetings can be had on marae;
 - (ii) There is face to face engagement;
 - (iii) There can be whanau support for all involved; and
 - (iv) Guidance and advice is often provided by kaumātua and kuia for all involved.
- (c) Should the teacher and employer, or their representatives on their behalf, agree to a resolution of the matter, then this will be recorded in writing and signed by both parties and/or their representatives on their behalf. A copy of the agreement will be placed on the teacher's personal file.
- (d) This is a discretionary option and either party may withdraw at any time, and nothing in this section prevents the employer or the teacher deciding at any time that any or all of the procedures in clauses 3.3 or 3.4 will be used. Where either party decides to withdraw from this process, such a decision will not of itself give rise to any claim of procedural deficiency or unfairness. The decision to withdraw from this process and/or for the employer to use any or all the procedures in clauses 3.3, and/or 3.4 will be notified in writing to the other party.

Trained beginning teachers in their first year (i.e. first four consecutive school terms) who are less than full-time but who are employed for 0.5 or more of a full-time load will receive 0.1 FTTE. - 3.8A.3 Time allowances will aggregate where the individual is providing curriculum-specific advice and guidance to two or more beginning teachers who generate the time allowance.
- 3.8A.4 The Head of Department may decide that better use of their time allowance is by transferring their direct responsibility for providing curriculum specific advice, guidance and support of a beginning teacher to another suitably qualified teacher who has the curriculum knowledge, while ensuring that the beginning teacher has at least the equivalent support as would be provided by the Head of Department. When the curriculum support programme is transferred the eligibility for the time allowance is also transferred.

- Note 2: For clarity, this is not an additional allowance for those with general oversight of beginning teachers (including those overseeing school-wide induction programmes) or with general professional development roles (including Specialist Classroom Teachers), except where the curriculum support role is separate from their generalised responsibility for beginning teachers at the school.

- Note 1: The parties have produced agreed guidelines, in consultation with NZSBA, to assist in the appointment process and the development of this position as an alternative career pathway for those teachers who want to remain based in teaching practice through supporting and encouraging effective teaching, rather than following a management and administration pathway. The guidelines are amended by the parties from time to time to assist in these processes.

- 3.8E.2 A teacher who has a role with specific leadership or responsibility for the pastoral care of students may be allocated a pastoral care time allowance. Individual teachers may be allocated up to a maximum of three allowances in accordance with the school's timetable policy.
- 3.8E.3 The allocated time allowance(s) will be used for the purpose of pastoral guidance or career guidance of students and will not be allocated for the general administration. The general pastoral care functions of classroom teachers or roles which are primarily administration based, such as form teachers do not create an entitlement to the allowance.

Note: This is not an additional allowance for those with general oversight of pastoral care systems (including those overseeing school-wide pastoral care) or for administrative roles associated with the pastoral care system, but teachers who hold such roles and also engage in direct pastoral care of students will be eligible. Each allowance allocated will reduce the teacher's timetabled contact hours by 5 per week and will be in addition to their timetabled non-contact hours, or any other time allowances the teacher holds under the terms of this agreement or at the discretion of the employer.

- 3.8E.4 Where the eligible duties are part of the teacher's ongoing role, any allowances will be permanent. Where duties are allocated for a specified period or project, they will be for the term specified in writing by the employer. The allowance will cease when:
- (a) the teacher ceases to undertake the pastoral care duties for which it was assigned, from the date that the relinquishment takes effect; or
 - (b) the teacher's pastoral care duties are for a fixed-term, when that fixed-term ends; or
 - (c) the teacher loses the allowance because of a reduction in the number of allowances available to the school, subject to clause 3.8E.6 below.

3.8E.5 Reduction in allowances

Where a reduction in the number of allocated allowances is required then the employer will first seek to manage any required reduction by attrition. Where the reduction cannot be managed by attrition then the employer will:

- (a) Reduce the fixed-term closest to the end of its term.
- (b) Where two or more fixed-term allowances have an equal period to their end of term, the employer will review the pastoral care functions of each allowance holder against the current pastoral care needs of the school to determine which allowance to reduce.
- (c) Where there are no fixed-term roles the employer will review the pastoral care duties of each permanent allowance holder against the current needs of the school to determine which allowance to reduce.

Note: The reduction may be in conjunction with the surplus staffing process but is not of itself sufficient to require in the school the processes outlined in clause 3.9.3 of this agreement.

 - (iii) The provisions of clause 3.9.7 of this Agreement will apply from the date of disestablishment.
- (m) Supernumerary Status Where No Option Selected

 - (a) that the position has been disestablished and the provisions of (f) of this clause will apply; or
 - (b) to accept the position with reduced hours, in which case from the date of disestablishment the teacher will be timetabled for the reduced number of hours but for a period of forty school weeks will continue to be paid for the number of hours which applied to the original position.
 - (ii) A permanent part-time teacher who elects the option in (i) b of this clause will receive an allowance calculated as the difference between their fortnightly salary in the new position accepted by the teacher and their fortnightly salary based on the number of hours which applied to the original permanent position. Where the teacher's hours are increased during any one fortnight, the value of the allowance in that fortnight will be abated accordingly. The teacher will receive the allowance over the number of weeks of entitlement set out in (i) b of this clause.

- (o) Salary Protection for Permanent Unit Holders Moving to Reduced Status Positions
All holders of permanent units who are reconfirmed or reassigned to positions at the reorganised school which are reduced in status as a result of the application of these provisions will have salary protection for 1 year from the establishment of the merged school.
 - (p) Continuation of Fixed-Term Units
Fixed-term units already allocated to teachers prior to the official date of merger will continue until the agreed expiry date of those units where the teacher is reconfirmed or reassigned at the merged school.
 - (q) Determination of Use of Unallocated Units
At the beginning of the new school year, the employer will under clause 4.3.1 of this Agreement, following consultation with the teaching staff, determine the use of any unallocated units subject to (p) of this clause.
- 3.9.5 Effective Date of Disestablishment Following Merger and Surplus Staffing Processes
Positions identified as surplus in the procedures set out in clause 3.9 will be effectively disestablished at the start of the next school year.
- 3.9.6 Period Following Issue of Notice and the Effective Date of Disestablishment
In the period between notice of disestablishment being given and the effective date of disestablishment, the following provisions will apply:
- (i) Withdrawal of Disestablishment Notice in Certain Circumstances
Where a teacher's position is to be disestablished and where, before the effective disestablishment of that position takes effect, the roll increases sufficiently to justify its continuation at its current level, the notice of disestablishment will be withdrawn and the teacher concerned will continue in the position at the level which existed prior to the notice of disestablishment being issued unless that teacher has, in the meantime, resigned or been appointed to another permanent position. Where there is more than one suitable teacher the provisions of clause 3.9.4(i) will operate.
 - (ii) Advertising Positions at Replacement School Following Closure
Where, as a consequence of the closure of a school through a surplus staffing process a replacement school is created, positions at the replacement school will be advertised nationally in the Education Gazette and notice of intention to advertise will be given to the Board of the closing school. Teachers at the closing school may apply for the advertised positions. Selection will be on merit with no automatic right to appointment. The entitlement to the options set out in clauses 3.9.1(e) and 3.9.7 applies where the teacher does not secure a position in the replacement school.
 - (iii) Applications for Position of Equal/Lower Status at Merged/Reclassified School
Where, in the case of the merger or change of class of a school as a consequence of the operation of clause 3.9 a teacher applies for a permanent teaching position of equal or lower status for which they are suitable at the merged or reclassified school, then the provisions of clause 3.9.4(g), (h) and (i) will apply. The entitlement to the options set out in clause 3.9.1(e) and 3.9.7 applies where the teacher does not secure a position in the new school.

- (iv) Provision of Support by Employer
Prior to the effective date of disestablishment of a position the employer will support the teacher's finding a suitable alternative permanent teaching position either within or outside the school and will meet the actual and reasonable costs of attending interviews at other schools where prior approval is given.
- (v) No Compensation if Teacher Declines Offer of Suitable Appointment
Where a teacher holds a position which is about to be disestablished and, before the effective date of disestablishment, the teacher declines an offer of suitable permanent appointment at the same salary from their employer or applies for and declines an offer of appointment to a teaching position for which the teacher is suitable from another board, the teacher's employment may be terminated from the effective date of disestablishment and no further compensation paid.
- (vi) Entitlement to Removal Expenses in Certain Circumstances
Where a teacher is appointed, under the provisions of this part, to a suitable permanent teaching position with another board and a transfer of location is involved, the teacher will be entitled to normal removal expense provisions provided that this entitlement will be exercised for one transfer only.

3.9.7 Voluntary Options

The options set out in clause 3.9.1(e) will have the meaning set out in this clause and apply in the following manner.

The term "school weeks" used in clause 3.9.7(1) and 3.9.7(2) mean those weeks forming part of the period during which in the normal course of events the school would be open for instruction.

- (1) Supernumerary employment
Supernumerary employment is employment for a period of up to 30 school weeks. A teacher whose position is disestablished as a result of voluntary election or otherwise who has either elected to be employed as a supernumerary teacher, or who has not taken up any of the other options set out in clause 3.9.1(e) before the date of disestablishment, will be entitled to supernumerary employment in accordance with the following provisions:
 - (a) (i) Generally
The teacher will continue to be employed at their existing salary for a period of 30 school weeks from the effective date of the disestablishment of the position (normally at the beginning of term one of the following year).
 - (ii) School mergers
In the case of school mergers the teacher may elect to be employed at their existing salary for a period of 40 school weeks at the merged school or in any other school – provided that the board of that school gives consent – from the effective date of the disestablishment of the position and the provisions of clauses 3.9.4(f)(i) a and 3.9.4(f)(i) b apply.
 - (iii) School closures
In the case of school closure the teacher may be supernumerary for 40 school weeks in any other school provided that the board of that school gives consent.

- (b) Teacher options
The teacher may elect to take up their supernumerary employment at the same school or at any other school at the request of the teacher and with the approval of the original employer and the board at the other school.
- (c) Provision of Support by Employer
The employer will encourage the teacher to find a suitable alternative permanent teaching position and will meet the actual and reasonable expenses of attending interviews at other schools where prior approval is given.
- (d) Appointment to Suitable Permanent Positions
If during the supernumerary period the teacher applies for a permanent position of equal or lower status for which they are suitable at the school or centre where they are employed at the time, they will be appointed to, or in the case of a merger reconfirmed or reassigned to, that position.
- (e) Termination of Supernumerary Period
The teacher's supernumerary employment will cease upon the teacher being appointed to a new teaching position or upon the teacher choosing to resign or at the expiration of the applicable number of school weeks specified in clause 3.9.7(1)(a) from the effective date of the disestablishment of the position, whichever is the earlier.
- (f) Time the Supernumerary Position Commences
In the case of the closure, merger, sale or transfer of, or change of class of a school the supernumerary period will begin on the date of the opening of the new school, unless the teacher takes up their supernumerary position at another school in terms of (b) above, in which case supernumerary status will begin from the effective date of disestablishment. Where a school is closed without replacement the teacher is entitled to the options set out in clause 3.9.1(e).
- (g) Removal Expenses
Where a supernumerary teacher is appointed to a new permanent teaching position and a transfer of location is involved, that teacher will be entitled to normal removal expense provisions provided that this entitlement will be exercised once only for each supernumerary period.
Note: Attention is drawn to clause 8.1.1(h) in relation to removal expenses.
- (h) Supernumerary Status Will Cease if Suitable Offer Declined
Where a supernumerary teacher declines an offer of suitable appointment at the same salary from the employer with whom they are employed at the time, or applies for and declines an offer of appointment from another board, the teacher's supernumerary status will cease forthwith.
- (i) Salary Increases/Increments Preserved
During any period of supernumerary employment a teacher is entitled to any salary increases or increments due.

- (2) Retraining
Where a teacher's position is disestablished as the result of voluntary election or otherwise the teacher may elect to take a course of study approved by the Secretary for Education that will enhance or upgrade the teacher's skills as a secondary school teacher, provided that:

- (a) Supernumerary Status for a Maximum of 40 School Weeks
The teacher will continue to be employed at their existing salary for a maximum period of 40 school weeks from the effective date of the disestablishment of the position (normally at the beginning of term one of the following year);
- (b) The teacher is employed as a supernumerary teacher during this period and has the rights and obligations of a supernumerary teacher except as specifically provided in this clause.
- (c) No Employer Contribution to Costs
There is no requirement on the employer to meet any costs and expenses of training, including course fees.
- (d) Provision of Evidence That Retraining Undertaken
The teacher will provide evidence of attendance at the approved course of study where requested by the employer. The employer may make enquiries during the retraining period to establish that the teacher is undertaking the approved course of study.
- (e) Supernumerary Status Affected by Duration of Course of Study
Where the approved course of study is for a shorter period than 40 school weeks the teacher is required to attend the school as a supernumerary teacher in periods when the school is open for instruction provided that where the approved course of study is less than the applicable period under clause 3.9.7(1)(a) supernumerary status from the effective date of disestablishment of the position will not extend beyond that period.
- (f) Where the course of study commences later than the effective date of disestablishment, the teacher is required to attend the school as a supernumerary teacher in periods when the school is open for instruction except in special circumstances approved by the employer.
- (g) Where the teacher chooses to withdraw from the course before its completion, further employment will cease, except where the employer and the Secretary for Education agree that there was just cause for the withdrawal, the teacher will return to the school as a supernumerary for the remainder of the retraining period.

(3) Severance Payment

Except where otherwise provided in clause 3.9, where a teacher's position is disestablished as a result of the application of the provisions in clause 3.9, the teacher may elect to be paid a severance payment provided that:

- (a) Deemed Supernumerary Status until Severance Payment Made
The teacher will be deemed to have supernumerary status for the period after disestablishment until severance payment is paid.
This period will usually be that between the beginning of the next school year and the 1 March census of the school roll. During this period, the rights and obligations of a supernumerary teacher will apply.
- (b) Effect of Early Payment of Severance Where Closed School Not Replaced
Where a school is closed without replacement at the end of a school year the teacher will receive a salary for the supernumerary status up to 1 March. The severance payment will be paid in the pay period immediately after 1 March. A teacher may request to be paid the severance payment prior to 1 March (although no earlier than the end of the school year) and in these circumstances the payment for the supernumerary period will be for the period between the end of the school year and the date of payment of the severance payment.

- (c) Calculation of Severance Payment
Payment under this clause will be made in accordance with the provisions below. For the purpose of these provisions, ordinary pay is defined as basic taxable salary, plus regular taxable allowances paid on a continuous basis as at the effective date of disestablishment of the position. For teachers on leave without pay, ordinary pay will be the ordinary pay at the time of taking leave.
- (d) A teacher whose position is disestablished who elects to take a severance payment will be paid according to the table below:

Length of Service	Weeks of Payment (ordinary pay)
Up to 3 years	7 weeks
Over 3 years and up to 5 years	15 weeks
5 years and over	23 weeks

- (e) Calculation of Length of Service for Severance (and Long Service) Payment
For the purposes of calculating length of service for clauses 3.9.7(3) and 3.9.7(4) only service as a teacher in a state or integrated school or as a transferred employee will be counted. Non-permanent part-time service will be calculated on the basis that 80 hours equals one month's service and 1000 hours equals one year's service. Where non-permanent part-time service consists of 20 or more hours per week it may be credited as full-time service. For the purposes of this clause service includes service credits for childcare where a teacher resigned or took leave to care for their children, on the basis of one third credit for each year of such leave up to a maximum of five years' credit.
- (f) Circumstances Where Refund of Portion of Severance Payment Required
Where a teacher having received a severance payment commences permanent employment within a number of weeks which is less than the number of weeks of payment received by the teacher as a severance payment under clause (3)(c) above, the teacher will refund the difference between the number of weeks for which they were without employment and the number of weeks for which severance payment was received. Provided that, for the purposes of this clause, employment means employment as a teacher in a state or integrated school or employment as a specialist secondary teacher of technology who comes within the coverage of clauses 1.4(a) or (c).
- (g) Effect of Severance Payment on Future Service
Any teacher receiving the severance payment will be deemed to have been paid in full for service to that date for the purpose of calculating service for any future sick leave, severance or long service payment entitlements.
- (h) Definition of "Pay"
Pay for employees will be defined as:
- For full-time employees, "Weekly" pay will be 7/365 of ordinary pay.
 - For part-time employees, "Weekly" pay will mean the teacher's average weekly earnings for the previous 6 or 12 months (whichever is more favourable to the teacher).

- (iii) Payment under this provision is conditional upon the teacher finishing on an agreed date (usually 1 March). Where the teacher resigns their position or is appointed to another teaching position before the date of payment no payment will be made.

(4) Long Service Payment

(a) Deemed Supernumerary Status until Long Service Payment Made

Where a teacher's position is disestablished either as the result of voluntary election or otherwise the teacher may elect to receive a long service payment. The intention of this payment is to assist the teacher to withdraw from the teaching service. This option will be available on the following basis:

- (i) the teacher will be deemed to have supernumerary status for the period from the effective date of disestablishment until long service payment is paid. This period will usually be that between the beginning of the next school year and 1 March census of the school roll. During this period, the rights and obligations of a supernumerary teacher will apply;
- (ii) those with 25 years' service and less than 30 years' service will be paid a lump sum of 25 weeks' ordinary pay;
- (iii) those with 30 years' service or more will be paid a lump sum of 30 weeks' ordinary pay;

(b) Effect of Early Payment of Long Service Where Closed School Not Replaced

Where a school is closed without replacement at the end of a school year the teacher will receive salary for the supernumerary status up to 1 March. The long service payment will be paid in the pay period immediately after 1 March. A teacher may request to be paid long service prior to 1 March (although no earlier than the end of the school year) and in these circumstances the payment for the supernumerary period will be for the period between the end of the school year and the date of the payment of the long service payment.

(c) Definitions of "Service" and "Weekly Ordinary Pay" for Long Service Payment

For the purposes of the long service payment the definitions of service and of weekly ordinary pay are the same as those for severance set out above.

(d) Circumstances Where Refund of Portion of Long Service Payment Required

Where a teacher having received a long service payment commences permanent employment within a number of weeks which is less than the number of weeks of payment received by the teacher as a long service payment under clause (4)(a) above, the teacher will refund the difference between the number of weeks for which they were without employment and the number of weeks for which long service payment was received; provided that, for the purposes of this clause, employment means employment as a teacher in a state or integrated school or employment as a specialist secondary teacher of technology who comes within the coverage in clauses 1.4(a) or (c).

(e) Effect of Long Service Payment on Future Service

Any teacher receiving the long service payment will be deemed to have been paid in full for service to that date for the purpose of calculating service for any future sick leave, severance or long service payment entitlements.

- (f) Payment under this provision is conditional upon the teacher finishing on an agreed date [usually 1 March].

3.9.8 Preference in Appointment

(a) Preference for Re-appointment Prior to Dis-establishment of Position

Where a position which has permanent units attached has been reduced in status because of the operation of clause 3.9 and the actual roll is sufficient to justify its re-establishment (or its continuation or resumption at the former level if altered in status) before the actual disestablishment of that position takes effect the teacher concerned will be entitled to be reappointed to the position at the re-established level unless they have resigned or been appointed to another permanent position.

Note: This sub-clause is not applicable to the holder of fixed-term unit(s).

(b) Preference of Appointment to Position at New Status and Salary Protection

Any teacher who holds a position which has permanent units attached, and that position is or is about to be altered in status as a consequence of the operation of clause 3.9, who applies for the position as advertised at its new status will be appointed to that position unless in the meantime the teacher has been appointed to another permanent position provided that where the position has been reduced in status the teacher concerned will continue to be paid at the salary they were receiving immediately prior to the reduction for a period of one year from the effective date of the reduction provided that they continue to hold that position.

Note: This sub-clause is not applicable to holders of fixed-term unit(s).

- (c) During any period of salary protection a teacher is entitled to any salary increases or increments due.

3.9.9 Where a teacher appointed to a position to which unit(s) are allocated loses that position or has the position altered in status because of the application of the surplus staffing provisions of this agreement the salary protection arrangements of those provisions will apply provided:

- (a) that where the allocation has been made on a fixed-term basis the period of protection will be for the lesser of the term of the appointment agreed or for one year while the teacher continues to hold a position at the school; and provided also:
- (b) that in no case will the eventual salary reduction be to a rate less than would otherwise apply had the teacher not been appointed to a position to which unit(s) had been allocated. For the sake of clarity, any increments received or due in accordance with clauses 4.2.3 or 4.3.7 or 4.1.4 will remain payable or due notwithstanding the teacher's reduction in status.

3.10 Return from a Period of Childcare

- 3.10.1 Any teacher who has resigned from their position to care for pre-school children and not more than four years have elapsed since such resignation (or five years in the case of a resignation because of pregnancy) who applies for a position of equal or lower status for which the teacher is suitable at the school from which they resigned will be appointed to that position.

- 3.10.2 The teacher will provide a birth certificate for the child and sign a statutory declaration to the effect that absence has been due to the care of a pre-school child.
- 3.10.3 If an applicant under these provisions is not appointed to any position in the school from which the applicant resigned within six months after the expiry of the period in this clause the benefits of these provisions will lapse.

3.11 Termination of Appointment

- 3.11.1
- (a) The effective date of a resignation or the end of a fixed term or long- term relieving position must be a day that is normally worked by the teacher and on which the school is open for instruction.
 - (b) The notice required to be given to a permanently appointed teacher who holds a position which was advertised will be two months.
 - (c) A permanently appointed teacher will give two months' notice to the employer, except where the teacher and the employer agree to a lesser period of notice from the teacher.
 - (d) Where an employer has dismissed a teacher who holds such a position, except in cases of serious misconduct, the employer at their discretion may provide some or all of the notice as salary in lieu of notice. In cases of serious misconduct clause 3.4.3(e) will apply.
- 3.11.2 Notice for fixed-term employees
- (a) Where fixed-term employment is to be terminated prior to the agreed termination point being the date, event, or project conclusion agreed between the employer and teacher the notice required will be two months, except that if there is less than two months remaining until the termination point, the notice required will be half of that remaining period.
 - (b) Nothing in clause 3.11.2 (a) will prevent a shorter notice period being agreed between the teacher and the employer.
 - (c) Notice provisions for relievers covering a teacher on maternity leave are set out in clause 6.3.1(c).
- 3.11.3 The notice requirements in clauses 3.11.1 and 3.11.2 do not apply where a teacher is dismissed without notice for serious misconduct or where the Secretary for Education gives concurrence under medical retirement – serious illness.

3.12 Medical Retirement

Note 1: A teacher who is eligible for medical retirement for terminal illness may elect to take retirement under the provisions for either serious illness or terminal illness but not both and will be entitled to one payment only.

Note 2: In the event that a teacher deceases in service without activating or uplifting the medical retirement provisions outlined in medical retirement terminal illness or medical retirement serious illness, the estate of the teacher will have no claim on the medical retirement provision.

Note 3: When a teacher has ceased to be a permanent employee the board may no longer approve medical retirement.

- 3.12.1 Terminal Illness
A permanently appointed teacher may be granted medical retirement in circumstances where the teacher has a terminal illness which causes them to be incapable of continuing to work or returning to work.
- 3.12.2 In such circumstances, the teacher will provide to the employer evidence of their illness from the teacher's registered medical specialist with a prognosis attesting to the incapacity to work both currently and in the future. The employer may request a further medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner nominated by the employer and will reimburse the cost where this is requested.
- 3.12.3 The employer will, on receiving an application for medical retirement, take account of the information provided by the teacher when making the decision whether or not to grant the medical retirement. Where the information provided does not provide sufficient medical reasons to support the granting of the medical retirement, the application can be declined.
- 3.12.4 Where the employer agrees to the medical retirement, the teacher is entitled to receive the greater of either:
(a) the balance of their unused sick leave entitlement as provided for in clause 6.2 of this agreement; or
(b) two months' normal salary in lieu of notice.
The following is a summary of the serious illness provisions which are detailed in full in Appendix B. Where there is an intention to use these provisions then refer directly to Appendix B.
- 3.12.5 Serious Illness
A permanently appointed teacher, currently in service, may be granted medical retirement under this clause in circumstances where the teacher has a serious illness or serious injury.
- 3.12.6 A teacher is considered to be medically unfit for work by reason of serious illness if they are wholly or substantially unable to perform the duties of the position at the school and are unlikely currently or at any time in the foreseeable future to be able to return to work. An application for medical retirement must be supported by medical evidence.
- 3.12.7 Either the teacher or the employer can initiate the medical retirement processes. Where the employer initiates, they must have reasonable grounds to do so.
- 3.12.8 If the teacher is medically retired, they may choose one of the following options:
(a) A medical retirement payment of 13 weeks' salary plus an additional week for every year's service after 25 years in a state or state integrated school or as a transferred employee. The maximum payment is 26 weeks' salary. Any sick leave taken in the four weeks leading up to the application to medically retire will be subtracted from the payment; or
(b) Remaining on sick leave until their entitlement is exhausted and the employer immediately appointing a permanent teacher to replace the medically retired teacher; or
(c) Receiving the remainder of their sick-leave entitlement as a lump-sum payment. This payment does not attract any holiday pay.

- 3.12.9 There must be concurrence from the Secretary for Education before the teacher may be medically retired under these provisions.
Note: Teachers considering medical retirement processes are advised to check out any implications of being medically retired on any retirement saving scheme or superannuation scheme they may contribute to.

3.13 Retirement Savings Scheme

- 3.13.1 Teachers are eligible to join Kiwisaver schemes in accordance with the terms of those schemes.
- 3.13.2 Employer or government contributions to retirement or superannuation schemes which are closed to new members (and include the Teachers' Retirement Savings Schemes, the State Sector Retirement Savings Scheme and the Government Superannuation Fund), will continue in accordance with the terms of those schemes.
- 3.13.3 A teacher is not eligible to receive employer or government contributions to a Kiwisaver scheme where government or employer contributions are made to another retirement or superannuation scheme of which that teacher is a member.
Note: Employers are obliged to enrol eligible new employees in a Kiwisaver scheme in accordance with the Kiwisaver Act 2006.

3.14 Savings

- 3.15.1 Pursuant to section 595(1) of the Education and Training Act 2020 the terms and conditions of this agreement will be actual terms and conditions.
- 3.15.6 Provided that the Secretary for Education may approve additional terms and conditions of employment where such terms are not inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this collective agreement.

3.16 Professional Development Funding

- 3.16.1 For the term of this Agreement, teachers may apply through the Association each year to the Professional Development Fund for approved activities. Applications will be assessed under the terms of the Fund agreed by the parties.

3.17 Knowledge in te reo and mātauranga Māori

- 3.17.1 The parties commit to giving priority to addressing in good faith, and resolving, the issues raised in regard to the Association's claim for financial support to recognise and compensate expert-level knowledge of teachers in kura auraki (mainstream schools) and to act as an aspirational goal that encourages current kaiako, regardless of cultural background, to continue to upskill in te reo and mātauranga Māori.

- (c) G3 for teachers who hold a level 7 qualification on the NZQF or equivalent overseas qualifications recognised by the NZQA.
- (d) G4 for teachers who hold a level 8 qualification or two level 7 qualifications on the NZQF or equivalent overseas qualifications recognised by the NZQA.
- (e) G5 for teachers who hold a level 9 or higher qualification on the NZQF or equivalent overseas qualifications recognised by the NZQA.

Note 1: The Qualifications Chart (MoE Circular 1999/11) and subsequent lists that were compiled through the qualifications verification process undertaken by the Association and the Ministry of Education | Te Tāhuhu o te Mātauranga will continue to be used to inform judgments about qualifications unable to be allocated a level by reference to the Register of Quality Assured Qualifications.

Note 2: Quality Assurance Processes

- The New Zealand Qualifications Authority registers New Zealand qualifications at levels on the New Zealand Qualifications Framework and assesses overseas qualifications against the Framework.
- The Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand approves and monitors teacher education courses that lead to teacher registration.
- Secondary teacher education providers of approved courses limit entry into their courses to those with Level 7 qualifications that support the teaching of the New Zealand secondary curriculum in years 7-13.
- Teacher education providers graduate only those who meet the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand Graduating Standards: Aotearoa New Zealand.
- Ministry of Education | Te Tāhuhu o te Mātauranga verifies the level(s) of qualification(s) for pay purposes using information from the New Zealand Qualifications Authority, the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand and teacher education providers.

Note 3: Issues Committee

A committee, called the Issues Committee, made up of representatives of the New Zealand Qualifications Authority, the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand, the Ministry of Education | Te Tāhuhu o te Mātauranga, the New Zealand School Boards Association and the Post Primary Teachers Association will meet from time to time, upon request of any of the named organisations, to consider and resolve any outstanding or new issues about teachers' qualifications in relation to salary. These may be either individual cases or more general qualification or teaching qualification issues.

- In the first instance the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand or the New Zealand Qualifications Authority respectively make decisions about teacher education requirements and qualifications;
- Where a matter remains unresolved, the Committee will be convened to seek to resolve the matter;
- Where the Committee is unable to resolve the issue, the Secretary for Education may exercise discretion to determine an appropriate placement or progression on the salary scale.

4.2 Application of Salaries

(See also Start of Year clause 3.2A.)

4.2.1 Qualification Groups for Salary Purposes

- (a) A teacher's qualification group will be determined by reference to the New Zealand Qualifications Framework. It is noted that the G3+ salary group requires both Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand registration and the Level 7 subject/specialist qualification.
- (b) Except where otherwise provided in this agreement, a teacher will be held at the maximum point of the salary scale for their qualification group.
- (c)
 - (i) Trained teachers who improve their qualification(s) will, on the effective date of improving the qualification(s), receive at least the minimum commencing step for the new qualification(s).
 - (ii) Those teachers who, in accordance with (b) above, have been held at the maximum point of the salary scale for their qualification group for one or more years of service for salary purposes and who subsequently improve their qualification(s) will be entitled to progress one salary step towards the maximum step of their new qualification group from the effective date of improving their qualification(s). This date will become their new anniversary date for salary progression purposes.
 - (iii) The effective date for the improvement of qualification(s) to a higher group is the date of official notification. In the absence of an official notification of completion of the qualification, the effective date will be the date the qualification was awarded, following confirmation of this by the provider.

4.2.2 Commencing Salary

4.2.2.1 Subject to Appendix A, a teacher's commencing salary is as follows:

- (a) The starting salaries of teachers who have a practising certificate from the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand and who also have a qualification defined by a 'G' notation are noted alongside the Base Salary scale – Trained Teachers.
- (b) The starting salaries of teachers who do not have a practising certificate from the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand but have a qualification defined by a 'G' notation are noted alongside the Base Scale – Untrained Teachers.
- (c) Teachers who do not have a subject/specialist qualification defined by a 'G' notation and who do not have a practising certificate from the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand registration commence on step one of the Base Scale – Untrained Teachers.

4.2.2.2 Moving from the untrained to the trained teacher salary scale

- (a) Where a teacher to whom 4.2.2.1(b) or (c) above applies is subsequently granted a practising certificate from the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand, the following will apply.
 - (i) The teacher will, subject to (ii) and (iii) below, translate to the entry step for their qualification group on the Base Salary Scale - Trained Teachers. If the teacher's base salary (untrained) is already at or above the applicable entry step for their qualification group on the Base Salary Scale - Trained Teachers, they will translate to the step with the next highest salary rate on the trained teacher scale. The date of this change will become their new anniversary date for salary progression purposes.
 - (ii) Where the teacher has service as an untrained teacher in a state or state integrated school that has not contributed to progression on the Base Scale - Untrained Teachers, they will have this service added to their entry step as per (i) on the Base Salary Scale – Trained Teachers. This will happen as part of their assessment under Appendix A.
 - (iii) Where the teacher was employed as an untrained teacher while they were undertaking an initial teacher education programme recognised by the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand, and the teacher had relevant work experience and/or other teaching service already counted in the teacher's first salary assessment, then the teacher will have that work and/or service included in their subsequent assessment under Appendix A.

Note: Clause 4.2.2 is not intended to be used for teachers who are commencing their first ever teaching position in the state and state integrated school sector after having become qualified but who are still awaiting confirmation of registration/certification from the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand. Beginning teachers who commence their first ever teaching position after becoming qualified should generally be assessed under clauses 4.2.2.2(a).

4.2.2.3 Secretary's discretion in exceptional circumstances

- (a) In exceptional circumstances the Secretary for Education may exercise discretion to approve the higher placement or faster progression of a teacher within the salary scale, having regard to a teacher's previous service and professional, technical, practical or other suitable experience, subject to the provisions of Appendix A.

4.2.3 Pay Progression

- (a) Teachers will progress to the appropriate base scale maximum shown on the scale subject to the employer attesting that the teacher has met the appropriate level of the Professional Standards for Secondary Teachers – Criteria for Quality Teaching appended as Supplement 1 to this agreement.
- (b) Assessment against Professional Standards
 - (i) A beginning teacher may have up to two assessments against the beginning teacher standards or three if registration is delayed, before assessment against the classroom teacher standards. However, beginning teachers may be assessed against the classroom teacher standards from an earlier date if progress warrants it and the teacher and appraiser agree.
 - (ii) Teachers will be assessed against the classroom teacher criteria once fully registered or after two years in the case of teachers holding Limited Authority to Teach (LAT) status.

- (iii) Classroom teachers may have three assessments against the classroom teacher standards but all teachers (including LATs) will be assessed against the experienced teacher standards once they have reached their appropriate base scale maxima. The only exception is teachers who have reached their base scale maxima before having up to two assessments against the beginning teacher standards (or three if registration is delayed) and up to three assessments against the classroom teacher standards. These teachers may have up to three beginning teacher standards assessments and up to three classroom teacher standards assessments before being assessed against the experienced teacher standards.
- (iv) Teachers who hold units and who have assumed a specified leadership, pastoral, administrative or task-specific responsibility in respect of their unit or units will be assessed against the relevant criteria for teachers holding units together with the standards applicable to their level of experience in respect of their classroom teaching duties.
- (c) When setting performance expectations and development objectives with individual teachers for the coming year, appraisers and the individual teachers will have regard for:
 - (i) The number of years taught and the appropriate level of the professional standards to be applied;
 - (ii) The subject(s), the class level(s) and the nature of classes taught;
 - (iii) The degree to which achievement and development are expected within each criterion;
 - (iv) Any other agreed factors.
- (d) Subject to clauses 4.2.3 (a), (b) and (c) above, pay progression applies in the following ways:
 - (i) All full-time and permanent part-time teachers whose salary commencement is described by clause 4.2.2 (a) or (b) above will, after completing one year on each step, progress to the appropriate qualifications maximum shown on the scale;
 - (ii) Teachers who do not have a subject/specialist qualification defined by a 'G' notation and who have not completed a recognised course of teacher education will progress after completing one year on each step, to step 4 of the Base Scale – Untrained Teachers;
 - (iii) Non-permanent part-time teachers employed for fewer than 20 hours a week will advance to the next step on completion of each 1000 hours. Credit towards each increment will be based on class contact hours only and will not include the 11% loading which applies in calculating salary. Salary credits will be calculated to the nearest month.
 - (iv) Short-term relievers will progress from one step to the next upon completion of each 190 days or 950 hours' relieving service, subject to satisfactory performance as attested by the principal of a school where the teacher has recently been employed as a relief teacher.

4.2.4 Withholding Increments

- (a) Where a teacher has not met the standards at the appropriate level the employer may defer salary progression. A programme of support and development will be put in place to assist the teacher in meeting the standards within a timeframe agreed between the employer and the teacher.

- (b) At the end of the review period:
 - (i) Where the teacher has met the appropriate standards, they will progress to the next salary step from this date. This will become the teacher's new anniversary date for pay progression purposes.
 - (ii) Where the teacher has not met the appropriate standards the employer will determine whether there are significant areas of concern to warrant initiating competence procedures or whether the programme of further support and development should continue.
- 4.2.5 Regional Health School Teachers
- (a) All permanent Regional Health School teachers will receive one permanent unit (as per clause 4.3) upon appointment.
 - (b) If the teacher is employed in more than one position that would entitle them to a unit under (a) above they will be entitled to a maximum of one permanent unit.
- Note: This does not restrict the ability of the employer to offer additional unit(s) for further specific assignments or tasks performed by the teacher.
- 4.2.6 Resource Teachers
- A permanent full-time teacher appointed to a Ministry of Education | Te Tāhuhu o te Mātauranga approved resource teacher role will receive one unit per annum (as per clause 4.3.2). This does not restrict the ability of the employer to offer additional unit(s) for further specific assignments or tasks performed by the teacher.
- Note: This entitlement replaces, but is not to be in addition to, any unit allocated out of Ministry of Education | Te Tāhuhu o te Mātauranga unit allocations to resource teachers.
- 4.3 Units
- 4.3.1 Boards will be entitled, in any one school year, to a number of units generated by formula in the Staffing Order. The employer, following consultation with its teaching staff, will determine the use of units. Up to 40% of the units may be allocated on a fixed-term basis.
- 4.3.2 The rate of each permanent or fixed term unit is $5,000 per annum. From 28 January 2026 the rate of each permanent or fixed term unit is $5,500 per annum.
- 4.3.3 Units are not divisible and must be paid at the substantive rate to both full- time and part-time teachers. The only circumstance in which the units may be apportioned is in an approved full-time job share position.
- 4.3.4 Fixed-term units will be paid in addition to the teacher's rate of pay, including any permanent units. At the time of allocating a fixed-term unit(s) the employer will specify either the period of time the teacher is entitled to the fixed-term unit or units, or the particular assignment or task to be undertaken which the fixed-term unit(s) has been allocated.
- 4.3.5 The entitlement to that fixed-term unit(s) will cease at the expiry of the specified period or on completion of the specified assignment or task.
- 4.3.6 The employer may reallocate to the same teacher a fixed-term unit(s) for a further period of time or for a further particular assignment or task.

4.3.7 Where a teacher ceases to hold a position allocated permanent unit(s), they may be entitled to the Service/Qualification Increment under clause 4.9.

4.3.8 Voluntary relinquishment of units

If a teacher who holds units offers to relinquish voluntarily a unit(s) and that offer is accepted by the employer, the teacher will cease to be paid for that unit(s).

Note: Refer to clause 3.9 provisions relating to the disestablishment of units through surplus staffing and merger processes.

4.3A Middle Management Allowances

4.3A.1 An employer will be entitled, in each school year, to a number of Middle Management Allowances generated by formula in the Staffing Order. The employer, following consultation with its teaching staff, will determine the allocation of these allowances. Up to 40% of the allowances may be allocated on a fixed term basis.

4.3A.2 The Middle Management Allowances are restricted to:

- (a) Teachers with four or fewer units (including none) who have a designated curriculum or pastoral management responsibility; and
- (b) Teachers with five units who have significant designated curriculum-rated management responsibilities; and
- (c) Teachers who have responsibilities (as defined in clause 4.3A.5 below) for at least five Ongoing Resourcing Scheme (ORS) funded students.

4.3A.5 Up to 20% of a school's Middle Management Allowances may be allocated to teachers without units who have designated curriculum or pastoral management responsibilities.

4.3A.4 An individual teacher with fewer than five units, may be allocated up to two Middle Management Allowances. An individual teacher with five units may be allocated no more than one Middle Management Allowance. Teachers with more than five units will not be eligible to receive Middle Management Allowances.

4.3A.5 Up to 20% of a school's Middle Management Allowances may be allocated to teachers without units who have designated curriculum or pastoral management responsibilities.

4.3A.6 An individual teacher with fewer than five units, may be allocated up to two Middle Management Allowances. An individual teacher with five units may be allocated no more than one Middle Management Allowance. Teachers with more than five units will not be eligible to receive Middle Management Allowances.

4.3A.7 (a) Subject to clause 4.3A.4, employers will allocate one Middle Management Allowance to each teacher who has responsibility for at least five High and/or Very High ORS students if the teacher has the following special duties and responsibilities for those students.

- (i) The direct responsibility for the development of the educational programmes of those students (including the significant adaptation of curriculum content); and
- (ii) The designated responsibility for the implementation of those programmes including providing special assistance to the students in face to face communication and social interaction in order for the students to be engaged, be understood, to respond and to learn.

- (b) This entitlement does not restrict a board from allocating more than one Middle Management Allowance to such teacher(s) if they are eligible under clauses 4.3A.2 (a), or (b).
- 4.3A.8 Each Middle Management Allowance will generate an additional annual salary payment of $2,000 per annum increasing to $2,400 per annum from 28 January 2026.
- 4.3A.9 Middle Management Allowances are not divisible and the attached salary will be paid at the substantive rate to both full-time and part-time teachers.
- 4.3A.10 These allowances do not count in the determination of eligibility for removal expenses under clause 8.1.1 (appointment on promotion).
- 4.3A.11 Where a teacher appointed to a position to which Middle Management Allowances are allocated loses that position, or has the position altered in status, because of the application of the surplus staffing provisions of this agreement then the salary protection arrangements of those provisions will apply provided that where the allocation has been made on a fixed-term basis the period of protection will be for the lesser of the term agreed or for one year while the teacher continues to hold a position at the school.

4.3B Senior Management Allowances

- 4.3B.1 An employer will be entitled, in each school year, to a number of Senior Management Allowances generated by formula in the Staffing Order. The employer, following consultation with its senior management team, will determine the allocation of these allowances. Up to 50% of the allowances may be allocated on a fixed term basis.
- 4.3B.2 A teacher who holds a position of either Assistant Principal or Deputy Principal will be eligible to receive a Senior Management Allowance if they formally deputise from time to time for one or more of the Principal's responsibilities (see Note 1).
- 4.3B.3 An individual teacher may hold both Middle and Senior Management Allowances if they separately meet the criteria for the allocation of each, except that they may hold no more than a total of two such allowances in any combination.
- 4.3B.4 The rate of each Senior Management Allowance will generate an additional annual salary payment at the rate of $2,000 per annum increasing to $2,400 per annum from 28 January 2026.
- 4.3B.5 Senior Management Allowances are not divisible.
- 4.3B.6 These allowances do not count in the determination of eligibility for removal expenses under clause 8.1.1 (appointment on promotion).
- 4.3B.7 Where a teacher appointed to a position to which Senior Management Allowances are allocated loses that position, or has the position altered in status, because of the application of the surplus staffing provisions of this agreement then the salary protection arrangements of those provisions will apply provided that where the allocation has been made on a fixed-term basis, the period of protection will be for the lesser of the term agreed or for one year while the teacher continues to hold a position at the school.

For clarity when a senior manager, in writing, voluntarily relinquishes a Senior Management Allowance, other than provided in clause 4.3B.7 above, the salary protection period will not apply.

Note 1: The terms ‘Assistant Principal’ and ‘Deputy Principal’ are defined by role not necessarily title. They are used in this context to indicate the role of the senior teachers who have school- wide leadership, management and/or administrative responsibilities and formally deputise from time to time for one or more of the Principal’s responsibilities.

4.4 Payment of Salaries

4.4.1 Teachers (other than Short-Term Relievers)

- (a) A teacher’s fortnightly remuneration (compromising all salary, units and allowances whether temporary or permanent), subject to clause 4.4.5, compensates the teacher for all the hours they work in that fortnight and will be paid by direct credit to the employee’s nominated bank account.

4.4.2 Part-Time Teachers (Permanent, Long-Term Reliever and Fixed Term)

- (a) The fortnightly salary of a part-time teacher, i.e. a teacher employed less than 1.0 FTTE, will be based on the step in the applicable base salary scale that the teacher would receive if employed full-time. The proportion of salary payable will be based on the teacher’s FTTE.

Examples:

A 0.6 FTTE teacher works an average of 24 hours per week (see clause 5.3.4), 15 of which are timetabled (made up of 12 hours class-contact and 3 hours non-contact time). If they are on step 10 ($105,686 from 28 Jan 2026, increasing to $107,886 from 28 Jan 2027) they will be paid about $2,432 gross per fortnight increasing to about $2,483 gross per fortnight respectively.

A 0.2 FTTE teacher works an average of 8 hours per week (see clause 5.3.4), 5 of which are timetabled (made up of 4 hours class-contact and 1 hour non-contact time). If they are on step 10 ($105,686 from 28 Jan 2026, increasing to $107,886 from 28 Jan 2027) they will be paid about $811 gross per fortnight increasing to about $827 gross per fortnight respectively.

4.4.3 Payment for teachers, other than short-term relievers, during term breaks

- (a) Except as provided in clause 4.8, teachers (other than short-term relievers) will be paid during term breaks that occur during the period of their employment, except where they fall in a continuous period of leave without pay.

4.4.4 Short Term Relievers

- (a) Short-term relievers employed on a daily basis for a continuous period of no more than three weeks, will be paid at the rate of 1/190th of the annual salary specified in clause 4.1.1 or clause 4.1.3 of this Agreement (this is inclusive of annual holiday pay) for each day worked; provided that the maximum salary is step 6 of the base scale – trained teachers or step 8 of the base scale – untrained teachers as applicable.
- (b) Short-term relievers employed on an hourly basis for a continuous period of no more than three weeks, will be paid at the rate of 1/950th of the annual salary specified in clause 4.1.1 or clause 4.1.3 of this Agreement (this is inclusive of annual holiday pay) for each hour worked; provided that the maximum salary is step 6 of the base scale – trained teachers or step 8 of the base scale – untrained teachers as applicable.

- (c) No short-term reliever will be paid for less than two hours per day of relief. If the teacher is also employed to work part-time on that day, only the actual hours worked will be paid.
- (d) If there is a break in duties of one and a half hours or more, an allowance equivalent to one hour of pay will be paid.
- (e) Short-term relievers will, wherever possible, be entitled to be paid within the current or immediately following pay period.

4.4.5 Overtime

- (a) Overtime will be paid for any timetabled class-contact hours in excess of two half days on any one day, or in excess of 10 half days in any one week, and will include any timetabled class-contact hours scheduled on a Saturday or a Sunday except where the timetabled class-contact hours is correspondingly reduced, and any timetabled class-contact hours scheduled for any public or other full holiday specified in this agreement or during any term break fixed in accordance with legislation.
- (b) Where overtime is payable, the rate will be based on 1/380th of the teacher's base salary rate for each teaching half day, or on such terms as prescribed by the Secretary for Education.

4.5 Payment for Public Holidays

4.5.1 Payment for Public Holidays

- (a) Teachers may be asked to work on a public holiday, but they do not have to agree. Teachers agree not to work on any public holiday unless asked to do so.
- (b) If a teacher does not work on a public holiday, they will get a paid day off if the public holiday falls on a day that would otherwise be a working day for them.
- (c) If a teacher works on a public holiday they will be paid in accordance with s 50 of the Holidays Act 2003. If it was a day that would otherwise be a working day for them, they will also get a paid day off on a day when the school is open for instruction.

4.6 Effective Date of Salary Increases on Promotion

4.6.1 The effective dates of salary increases on promotion are as follows:

- (a) When promotion occurs at the beginning of the school year. The increased salary is payable from 28 January.
- (b) Appointment after advertisement. The date of commencement of salary for the new position is the date of formal appointment or the date on which the appointment is taken up, whichever is the latter.
- (c) Appointment during period of leave with pay. A teacher who is appointed to a higher position while on leave with pay is not paid salary for the new position until the date of actually taking up the new duties.

4.7 Salary Protection

4.7.1 During any period of salary protection the teacher is entitled to any salary increases or increments due. Upon expiry of the protection period the teacher's salary is reduced to the maximum salary payable according to the new grade of the position. When a teacher whose salary has been reduced subsequently obtains a new position salary is assessed as if no reduction had taken place.

4.8 Holiday Pay

4.8.1 General Provisions

- (a) Holiday pay is the salary payable to teachers on cessation of duty or for periods during which schools are closed for term breaks excluding annual holidays in clause 6.1.
- (b) A teacher, other than a short-term reliever, is paid for all term breaks which occur during the period of engagement, subject to clauses 4.8.6 to 4.8.10 below.

4.8.2 Short-Term Relieving Teachers

Short-term relieving teachers receive holiday pay at the same time as their pay. This is known as pay-as-you-go leave and will be paid at a rate of 30% on top of the gross pay as outlined in clause 4.4.4. This rate is inclusive of, not in addition to, their entitlements under the Holidays Act 2003.

4.8.3 Holiday Pay on Allowances

A teacher who is receiving additional salary as the holder of units and/or an allowance(s) provided under this Agreement at the end of the term, will receive holiday pay calculated on the higher salary for the period so employed or until the end of the term break, whichever is the shorter.

4.8.4 Holiday pay due on cessation of duty

A teacher, other than a short-term reliever, who ceases duty during a school year is paid any balance of holiday pay due after taking into account:

- (a) Total teaching service for the year
- (b) Annual Holidays and Holiday pay already paid in that year
- (c) Any leave without pay taken during that year.

4.8.5 Method of Calculation

Holiday pay is based on the school year. It is not normally payable beyond 27 January except where the employment of a teacher who has a later employment anniversary date ends. For holiday pay purposes, teaching service comprises all paid service including weekends and public holidays, but not term breaks. Calculation of holiday pay is made to the nearest day and when a half-day is involved the calculation is made to the benefit of the teacher. In calculating holiday pay the following rules apply:

- (a) In schools open for 195 or more days in a school year, $HP = \frac{1}{4} \times \text{number of days}$. In schools open for fewer than 195 days in a school year, $HP = \frac{3}{10} \times \text{number of days}$.
- (b) If a permanent teacher has had leave without pay for a period exceeding five days, the holiday pay to be deducted is based on the total number of days without pay.
- (c) When a teacher resigns, any half-day resulting from calculation of holiday pay is to the benefit of the teacher.
- (d) When a school closes on a Friday and the term break commences on the Monday following, the intervening weekend is school time and not part of the term break.
- (e) The number of days holiday pay is counted from the beginning of the term break. Deductions from holiday pay are made from the end of the term break.
- (f) The resulting calculation of holiday pay will be reduced by any payment due or paid for annual holidays, in accordance with the Holidays Act 2003.

- 4.8.6 Holiday Pay After Sick Leave Without Pay
No deduction is to be made from holiday pay for periods of sick leave without pay or accident leave without pay not exceeding three months in any one school year. Where the total number of days of sick/accident leave without pay is in excess of three months the deduction is based on the period subsequent to the three months. The initial three months are not taken into account. In order to receive the benefits of holiday pay for periods of sick leave without pay, a teacher's current sick leave entitlement must first have been used, i.e. teachers with current entitlements to sick leave are not covered by the non-reduction in holiday pay provisions outlined above if they elect to receive sick leave without pay instead of using their entitlement.
- 4.8.7 Holiday Pay After Leave Without Pay
If a teacher has been granted leave without pay (other than sick leave in terms of subclause 4.8.6) in excess of five school days during any school year, the total holiday pay due is reduced in proportion to the total period of leave without pay. In special cases the Secretary for Education may approve holiday pay beyond entitlement (e.g. periods of approved sports leave without pay).
- 4.8.8 Study Leave Without Pay
No deduction is made from the holiday pay of teachers for study leave without pay for periods not exceeding three months in any one year. If the period exceeds three months, the holiday pay deduction is based on the whole period of leave. The leave must be for study for qualifications recognised by the Ministry as of value to teaching.
- 4.8.9 Military Training
No deduction from holiday pay is made for leave without pay for voluntary military training or subsequent part-time military training or overseas military training.
- 4.8.10 Holiday Pay for Part-Time Teachers Who Temporarily Work Full-Time
If the period of full-time work is one week or more, then payment is to be made on a full-time basis. Holiday pay is to be paid at the full rate of salary for a period equal to 1/4 or 3/10 of any period or periods that the teacher worked full-time and the balance of term breaks should be paid for at the normal pro-rata rate. This is subject to any holiday pay adjustment needed on account of the teacher not having worked the full year (where applicable).

4.9 Service/Qualification Increment

- 4.9.1 Subject to clause 4.9.10 below, a teacher is eligible for the Service/Qualification Increment (Increment) if the teacher:
- (a) is permanently appointed to a teaching position; and
 - (b) has been attested by the principal as having met the requirements of Supplement 1; and
 - (c) has completed three years' teaching service on their maximum step of the trained teachers' base salary scale for the teacher's qualification group; and
 - (d) is classified in qualification Group 1, 2, 3 or 3+ and after completing the qualification(s) used to determine the teacher's qualification group the teacher has:
 - (i) been assessed as Level 5 or higher on the Whakamātauria Tō Reo Māori framework, or

- (ii) completed a qualification at Level 5 or higher on the National Qualifications Framework and does not hold a permanent unit(s) in terms of clause 4.3.

- 4.9.2 The acquisition of an additional qualification is not required of a teacher classified in qualification Group 4 or 5.
- 4.9.3 A teacher eligible for payment of the Increment will, upon application, be paid additional salary at the rate of $2,000 per annum.
- 4.9.4 A teacher eligible for the Increment under clause 4.9.1 will have the payment backdated to the date they became eligible to receive the increment provided that no backdating exceeds 36 months from the date of application.
- 4.9.5 Eligibility for the Increment once approved, remains (subject to 4.9.6 and 4.9.7 below) if the teacher moves to a new teaching position in the secondary sector, whether permanent or not, regardless of breaks in service.
- 4.9.6 Payment of the Increment will cease should a teacher be appointed to a position which has allocated permanent unit(s), or upon the allocation of permanent unit(s) to the teacher in their existing position. Payment of the Increment will resume should the teacher cease to hold a position allocated permanent unit(s).
- 4.9.7 Payment of the Increment will cease should a teacher improve their qualification group. Once the teacher has met the eligibility requirements outlined in clause 4.9.1(b) to (e) for the new qualification group payment of the Increment will resume.
- 4.9.8 Primary or area school teachers or those in the advisory service who move to a position in a secondary school, either directly or after a break in service, who:
 - (a) were in receipt of the Service Increment will receive payment of the Increment as per clause 4.9.3 (subject to clause 4.9.6 and 4.9.7) from the date of appointment to the new position; or
 - (b) have accumulated service towards eligibility for the Increment in terms of clause 4.9.1(c) will be able to count the accumulated service towards the service requirement in clause 4.9.1(c).
- 4.9.9 Teachers who were serving on or before 1 February 1971 will not be required to acquire an additional qualification if they fall within one of the categories outlined in Supplement 2 of this agreement.

Whakamātauria Tō Reo Māori framework

- 4.9.10 Clauses 4.9.6 and 4.9.7 above do not apply to teachers assessed as Level 5 or higher on the Whakamātauria Tō Reo Māori framework. The increment is payable to a maximum of 25 secondary school teachers assessed as Level 5 or higher on the Whakamātauria Tō Reo Māori framework. If there are more than 25 secondary school teachers who meet the criteria at any one time, only the first 25 of those to apply are entitled to be paid the increment.

4.10 Careers Adviser Allowance

- 4.10.1 A teacher appointed as careers adviser will be paid an allowance at the rate of $2,250 per annum. This allowance is paid at the substantive rate for both full time and part time teachers, regardless of the number of units they hold. The only circumstance in which the allowance may be apportioned is in an approved full-time job share position.

4.11 Associate Teacher Allowance

- 4.11.1 A teacher who has been assigned by the principal to assist in the practical training of teacher trainees, or of teachers on retraining courses, is eligible to be paid a minimum allowance of $3.19 for each timetabled hour of teacher trainee contact subject to the following provisions:
- (a) The allowance is paid to an assigned associate teacher provided that they accumulate one hour or more of timetabled teacher trainee contact per week. For each additional hour per week a further allowance is paid. The allowance is paid for multiples of one hour minimum only and not for fractions of an hour.
 - (b) When more than one teacher trainee is placed with an associate teacher for a timetabled period or periods the aggregate is not affected.
 - (c) The time spent with the associate teacher does not all need to be class contact time but can include formally timetabled periods spent in such activities as discussion with teacher trainees, assisting the teacher trainees in preparing lessons, critical appraisals of teacher trainees' teaching, or other professional guidance related to the work of the teacher trainees placed with that teacher.
 - (d) In the event of team teaching, the number of hours or parts thereof claimed by associate teachers cannot exceed the number of teacher trainees present and can be claimed only by those teachers with whom those teacher trainees have been timetabled.
 - (e) The allowance is paid at the end of each term.
 - (f) Where a rate above the minimum rate of $3.19 is to be paid to a teacher, the rate will be consistent with any arrangements made between the provider and the Board.

4.12 Staffing Incentive Allowance

- 4.12.1 Subject to the conditions set out below full-time permanent teachers appointed to advertised positions up to and including positions attracting four permanent units in schools designated by the Secretary for Education, after consultation with the Association, as qualifying for the staffing incentive package and teachers appointed to long-term relieving positions up to and including positions attracting four permanent units who have served for two complete terms or more in a school or schools so designated, will be paid a staffing incentive allowance of $1,000 per annum.
- 4.12.2 Itinerant music teachers in Southland are entitled to be paid the staffing incentive allowance, provided that the majority of schools serviced by the individual teacher are designated as qualifying for the staffing incentive package.
- 4.12.3 Teachers receiving the staffing incentive allowance (except for long-term relievers) are entitled to receive the allowance for a minimum of three years in any individual school approved for payment of the allowance. Therefore when a school is removed from the approved list, eligible teachers who have not received the allowance for the three year minimum period at the time the school ceases to qualify will continue to receive the allowance until the period of three years is completed providing continuous service in the same school is maintained during this time and providing the teacher remains in a position eligible for the allowance.

Payment of the allowance will, however, cease immediately for those teachers who have already received the allowance for a period of three years or more at the time the school ceases to qualify. If the teacher moves to a school not approved for payment of the allowance, payment ceases immediately. If the teacher moves to a school which does attract the allowance, a new minimum period of three years is applicable from the date the teacher commences in the new school.

- 4.12.4 Long-term relievers are to receive payment of the allowance retrospectively after they have completed the minimum period of two terms of continuous service (excluding holidays) in a school or schools which qualify for the allowance. They may then be paid the allowance fortnightly as long as they maintain continuous service in a school or schools which qualify. For the purpose of this clause service as a long-term reliever means continuous service in a school or schools which qualify for a minimum period of two terms equivalent.

4.13 High Priority Teacher Supply Allowance

- 4.13.1 The High Priority Teacher Supply Allowance (HPTSA) provisions below will apply to teachers employed in those schools identified by the Secretary for Education as requiring additional support for recruitment and retention. - (a) Full-time and part-time (0.5FTE and above) teachers who hold a current practising certificate and are employed on a permanent or long-term relieving basis of two consecutive terms or more will be entitled to receive the allowance of $2,500 per annum, pro-rated for part-time teachers.
 - (b) Teachers in receipt of HPTSA are not entitled to receive the SIA at the same time.
 - (c) Where a school loses HPTSA status, the school may apply for SIA status where there is a serious staffing difficulty.
 - (d) Teachers moving into a HPTSA school are entitled to elect to take either the transfer and removals provisions of this agreement, or any alternative transfer and removals provisions or grants which may from time to time be offered by the Ministry of Education | Te Tāhuhu o te Mātauranga and for which they would be eligible, but not to both. On completion of a minimum of three years' continuous service in one or more HPTSA schools a teacher will have access to the transfer and removal provisions of this Agreement when moving from this category of school to another teaching position in a state or integrated school.
 - (e) In the event that a school is removed from the HPTSA coverage, teachers who were in receipt of the HPTSA prior to that change will continue to receive the allowance until the end of the school year. - 4.15.2 When a permanent teacher(s) relieves in the position of principal in the same school because the principal has been released to undertake the functions of the Kāhui Ako Leadership role they shall be paid an allowance from the date they began the additional functions, provided that;
- (a) they will be undertaking the additional functions for a cumulative period of more than two weeks; and
 - (b) the payment shall be an allowance representing the difference between the teacher's salary and the minimum rate applicable to the principal's position but shall not be less than the rate of salary in the teacher's own permanent position; and
 - (c) as the teacher(s) is not undertaking the whole of the principal's role, the allowance will be pro-rated provided the payment(s) to the teacher, or teachers in combination, do not exceed the total allowance payable for the portion of the time the principal is undertaking the Kāhui Ako Leadership role.

- 4.16.1 A permanent teacher who acts up into a position other than principal, will be paid for the period concerned a higher duties allowance representing the difference between the employee's salary and the salary for the position the teacher is acting, up to a maximum of an amount equivalent to the value of three units, and subject to the conditions in clauses 4.16.2 and 4.16.3 below and to such conditions as the Secretary for Education may approve.

 - (c) A teacher who is being paid the higher duties allowance on the last day of a school term will be paid the allowance for the ensuing vacation for a period equal to one-fourth or three-tenths, as the case may be, of the period of employment in the position or until the end of the vacation, whichever is the shorter period.
 - (d) Payment for vacations being made on the basis of three-tenths of service.

- (e) The temporary appointment is not a long-term relieving one made, after advertisement, in accordance with the usual procedure for permanent appointments. Any position which will be vacant for more than six months must be advertised as a long-term relieving position.
- (f) Once a teacher has qualified for a higher duties allowance and is being paid that allowance before a period of sick or special leave on pay the teacher continues to receive the allowance for up to one month of the period of leave providing the teacher returns to a higher duties position immediately after the leave.

- 4.17.1 A compassionate grant is payable to the estate of a teacher who:
- (i) dies while employed in the state teaching service; or
 - (ii) dies within 12 months of the date of approved medical retirement under clause 3.12. For clarity this date is from the date of retirement and excludes any notice period or period for which payment is made.

Compassionate grants are calculated as a proportion of the annual rate of salary payable to the teacher at the time of death as follows:

Length of Service	Proportion of annual salary rate
Twenty years or more	One-eighth

Temporary allowances payable for a period less than 12 months are excluded from the calculation of the grant.

- (f) Service for the payment of the Level 2 allowance will include any teaching service at Pacific or bilingual immersion Level 1 or Level 2 including as a transferred employee. Service for the payment at Level 1 will include any teaching service at Pacific or bilingual immersion including that as a transferred employee at Level 1 only.

4.26 Community Liaison Roles – trial

- 4.26.1 From 28 January 2024 to 27 January 2026, 335 Community Liaison roles will be available in accordance with the terms of the Community Liaison trial agreement to be agreed between the parties.
- 4.26.2 Each holder of a Community Liaison role will be entitled to a time allowance of 0.04 FTTE and a salary payment of $1,000 per annum.
- 4.26.3 Allocation of the trial roles will be on a school-by-school basis within the agreed region(s), determined by a base component plus a number weighted by the Māori and Pasifika rolls of the school.

4.27 Learning Support Coordinators

Unless specifically stated in this part, the terms and conditions of employment for Learning Support Coordinators are the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

- 4.27.1 The number of Learning Support Coordinator (Coordinator) roles will be generated annually by Staffing Order and allocated to boards.
- 4.27.2 The purpose of the Coordinator roles is to promote effective and inclusive teaching and learning practice within schools including those in a Kāhui Ako or Cluster and to strengthen the support to children with additional learning needs.
- 4.27.3 Coordinators will be appointed permanently unless there is genuine reason to appoint to a fixed term position. Each Coordinator will be fully released from timetabled duties.
- 4.27.4 Coordinators can be employed full-time or part-time, including job share arrangements as agreed by the employer.
- 4.27.5 The functions of the role are set out in the Coordinator Role Description drafted by the Ministry of Education | Te Tāhuhu o te Mātauranga along with any distinct responsibilities and/or activities that are defined by the employing school, in consultation with other schools in the Kāhui Ako or Cluster where applicable. To avoid doubt: any such distinct responsibilities and activities that sit outside those outlined in the role description by the Ministry of Education | Te Tāhuhu o te Mātauranga must be mutually agreed between employer and employee.

- 4.27.6 Where a Coordinator works across schools, this will be in conjunction with the Kāhui Ako or Cluster's shared plan for Learning Support. When allocating a Coordinator's time across the Kāhui Ako or Cluster schools, the employer will consider what is reasonable, taking account of the Coordinator's responsibilities, duties and travel requirements.
- 4.27.7 Where a Coordinator is allocated leadership, management or other additional responsibilities for learning support and/or allied staff by the employer, consideration may be given as to whether a unit should be allocated, in line with the school's unit allocation policy.
- 4.27.8 Where responsibilities allocated to the Coordinator are additional to those described in the Coordinator role description, e.g. leadership or management responsibilities, the employer must consider the balance of the allocated responsibilities to allow the Coordinator to fulfil their role effectively.
- 4.27.9 A teacher who relieves for a Coordinator while they are on approved leave, will be fully released from classroom teaching responsibilities for the time they are undertaking the Coordinator role.
- 4.27.10 Principal's Nominee Allowance
- 4.27.11 The employer may appoint one teacher as the Principal's Nominee for responsibilities associated with the school's NZQA-accredited Consent to Assess (or equivalent) during the school year.
- 4.27.12 From 26 April 2026, the appointed teacher will be entitled to an allowance of $2,500 per annum. This allowance is not pro-rated except as provided for by clause 4.28.3.
- 4.27.13 In exceptional circumstances (and only with the employer's agreement), the role can be shared by two teachers. Where this applies, the allowance and the time allocation will be shared in proportion with each teacher's responsibilities - which must be agreed at the time the arrangement is entered into (or varied).
- 4.27.14 Each holder of the Principal's Nominee Allowance will be entitled to one hour of timetabled non-contact time.
- 4.27.15 The employer or the teacher appointed as the Principal's Nominee may end the responsibilities with a minimum of one term's notice.

Part 5: Hours of Work

5.1 Days and Hours of Work

- 5.1.1 Teachers' work is any activity required to fulfil the expectations of their role or to undertake the duties assigned by them. An individual teacher's hours of work are influenced by factors such as:
- (a) The classes the teacher is timetabled to teach, which for a fulltime teacher will comprise no more than 20 hours per week or a combination of periods of time equivalent to 20 hours per week;
 - (b) Timetabled non-contact hours, which for a fulltime teacher will be at least five hours per week or a combination of periods of time equivalent of five hours per week;
 - (c) Whether it is a week/day students are required to attend school;
 - (d) The preparation, evaluation and assessment time that may be generated by those classes and the students within them or by other requirements such as external examination prescriptions or the need to report on the progress of individual students;
 - (e) The counselling and pastoral needs of students;
 - (f) The administrative responsibilities of individual teachers either in respect of their curriculum or pastoral responsibilities or in respect of the general administration of the school;
 - (g) The responsibilities of individual teachers arising from their appointment to a Kāhui Ako role; and
 - (h) The extent to which individual teachers may participate in the extra-curricular programmes of the school.

- 5.2.2 Teachers' days and hours of work will largely reflect the variable flow of work during the school year, where workloads are higher during school terms and lower during term breaks and/or other times when student attendance at school may not be required. Teachers will work such hours as may reasonably be required to enable them to properly fulfil their responsibilities. For:
- (a) Full-time teachers, this is expected to average 40 hours per week across the year.
 - (b) Part-time teachers, this is expected to be proportionate to their FTTE (e.g. a teacher who is 0.5 FTTE is expected to work an average of 20 hours per week across the year).

Examples:

FTTE	Timetabled hours during term time	Hours per week averaged across the year
1.00	25 hours (up to 20 hours class-contact, remainder non-contact)	40 hours
0.75	18 hours 45 minutes (up to 15 hours class-contact, remainder non-contact)	30 hours
0.50	12.5 hours (up to 10 hours class-contact, remainder non-contact)	20 hours

- 5.1.3 If a teacher receives a unit(s) or allowance(s) for additional responsibilities the employer and employee will agree any requirements that some or all of these responsibilities be worked at a specific time or place and any hours that are additional to those in clause 5.1.2. The agreement must be recorded in writing.

- 5.1.4 Employers will recognise the importance of setting and allocating reasonable and safe workloads for teachers including allocating duties that can be reasonably completed within the overall expected average weekly hours across the year. It is recognised that the workload will vary taking into account the factors set out in clause 5.1.1, and teachers will be required to work such hours in any week as may reasonably be required to enable them to properly fulfil their responsibilities.
- 5.1.5 Teachers will have flexibility in how they manage their allocated workload across the year, provided that they will be responsible for drawing to their employer's attention any situation where their pattern of work or workload allocated under clause 5.1.1 is such that they may exceed the total expected average weekly hours set out in clause 5.1.2. In this circumstance teachers should provide appropriate supporting information to demonstrate their work pattern and/or that their total expected weekly hours averaged across the year may be exceeded.
- 5.1.6 Where a teacher raises an issue with their employer in accordance with clause 5.1.5 the employer and the teacher will consult in relation to managing the teacher's workload. If the employer accepts that there is a workload issue, they will be required to take reasonable steps to manage it.
- 5.1.7 Where a teacher raises an issue with their employer in accordance with clause 5.1.5 and the employer:
- (a) has genuine reason not to accept that there is a workload issue, or considers that insufficient supporting information has been provided by the teacher, the employer will provide the teacher with the opportunity to provide further information. After consideration the employer will advise the teacher of their decision, and will provide reasons in writing; or
 - (b) considers that the workload issues have arisen as a result of performance issues or other default by the teacher, the employer will advise the teacher that they are initiating the process outlined in clause 3.3.
- 5.1.8 The hours of opening of schools, the structure of the timetables and like matters are designed to meet the curriculum and pastoral needs of students and are determined within each school according to its policies and any specific legal requirements, including teachers' statutory entitlement to rest and meal breaks as applicable. The clauses which follow (clauses 5.2 to 5.6) identify the requirements upon which the decisions in individual schools are made.

5.2 Timetabling Policy

- 5.2.1 Each employer must have a policy on timetabling, developed in consultation with its teaching staff. This policy will incorporate:
- (a) The timetabled contact and non-contact entitlements of clause 5.3 below;
 - (b) Class size matters, including the class size provisions of clause 5.5 below;
 - (c) Reference to other matters, including duties outside of timetabled hours, which impact on timetabling practices;
 - (d) A process providing for circumstances where, for genuine reason during timetabling or at short notice, it is not possible to provide the minimum non-contact time entitlements described in clause 5.3 and where the employer has used reasonable endeavours and is unable to achieve the class size provision in clause 5.5.

5.3 Timetabled Contact and Non-Contact Time

- 5.3.1 During periods when students are not in attendance or when teachers have no timetabled hours or other duties that require them to be at school, teachers have a lot of flexibility about where and when they carry out their duties.
- 5.3.2 Within a teacher's weekly hours of work as outlined in clause 5.1, a full-time teacher's timetabled hours will comprise a total of 25 hours or a combination of periods of time equivalent to 25 hours per week to be worked on days that the school is open for instruction.
- 5.3.3 The placement of a teacher's timetabled contact and non-contact hours will be discussed with the individual teacher and the employer will consider the distribution of the individual's timetabled hours across the week.
- 5.3.4 Subject to clause 5.2.1 (d), a teacher cannot be timetabled for more than 20 hours per week class contact. The balance of their timetabled hours will be non-contact time of which for:
- (a) Full-time teachers must be a minimum of five hours per week;
 - (b) Part-time teachers must be proportionate to that provided to full-time teachers, based on their total FTTE. Where the non-contact time is less than one student class the non-contact time must be included in the teacher's FTTE but is not required to be timetabled.
- 5.3.5 The following time allowances will be in addition to the non-contact time entitlements provided above:
- (a) The individual time allowances set out in clauses 3.7 (Te Atakura), 3.8A (Head of Department Beginning Teacher Time Allowance), 3.8B (Specialist Classroom Teacher) and 4.22, 4.23 and 4.24 (Kāhui Ako time allowances).
 - (b) The minimum time allowances for Permanent Unit Holders as follows:
 - (i) one hour per week for holders of one permanent unit;
 - (ii) two hours per week for holders of two permanent units; and
 - (iii) three hours per week for holders of three or more permanent units.
 - (iv) for the fourth and subsequent permanent unit(s) the employer will endeavour to provide one hour for each additional permanent unit.
 - (c) the Beginning Teacher Time Allowance (clause 3.8), which should reduce the teacher's contact time before any other time allowances or non-contact time entitlements are considered
 - (d) any additional non-contact time for senior management positions that an employer may provide in accordance with its school policies.

5.4 Length of the Timetabled School Day, School Week and School Year

- 5.4.1 The length of the timetabled school day is determined by the requirement that students are normally required to be in attendance for two half days, one before noon, the other after noon.
- 5.4.2 The length of the timetabled school week is determined by the requirement that students are normally required to be in attendance for 10 half days per week, except where interrupted by any public holiday or any other holiday allowed for in accordance with the Education and Training Act 2020 or regulations made under that Act or by any provision in this agreement authorising the absence of teachers. The 10 half days will usually be timetabled from Monday to Friday inclusive, but they may be timetabled on a Saturday or a Sunday.

5.4.3 The length of the timetabled school year is determined by the requirement that schools must be open for instruction for at least the minimum number of half days in any one calendar year, as set out in relevant legislation. The number may be reduced by any lawful decision of the employer to close the school for instruction.

5.4.4 The normal timetabled teaching load in respect of any one day, one week or one year is related to the requirements outlined above, taking account of the normal timetabling practices of each school.

5.5 Class Size

5.5.1 In accordance with its timetabling policy, it is expected that employers will use reasonable endeavours to achieve, for each individual teacher with more than one class, an average class size (based upon the teacher's timetabled classes and the roll of each of those classes) of no more than 26 students and where this cannot occur clause 5.2.1 (d) will apply.

Note: This does not preclude averages of less than 26 students.

5.6 Term Breaks and Other Times When Schools Are Not Open For Instruction

5.6.1 Except as outlined in clauses 5.6.2, 5.6.3 and 5.6.5, teachers will not be required to attend school:

- (i) before approximately 8.30am and after 4:30pm on days that the school is open for instruction (or such other hours of opening that may be agreed under clause 5.1.4);
- (ii) on days that the school is not open for instruction at all, such as term breaks or public holidays.

5.6.2 The employer may require teachers to participate in professional development opportunities at times when the school is not open for instruction, provided that:

- (a) teachers cannot be required to attend during a closedown period under clause 6.1.3; and
- (b) teachers are not required to attend for more than five days, or equivalent, per school year; and
- (c) the employer takes account of individual teacher needs; and
- (d) teachers' own initiatives in undertaking professional development during time when the school is not open for instruction are considered.

5.6.3 The employer may require teachers to attend school or elsewhere when the school is not open for instruction, provided that:

- (a) the time is used for all or any of the following purposes – school administration, preparation and coordination, departmental or related activities and community, parent and whānau contact and liaison; and
- (b) teachers cannot be required to attend during a closedown period under clause 6.1.3; and
- (c) teachers are not required to attend for more than five days, or equivalent, per school year; and
- (d) the employer endeavours to arrange matters at the school in such a way that any requirement under this clause is not unreasonable; and
- (e) the employer takes account of teachers' individual needs; and
- (f) teachers' own initiatives in undertaking work for the above purposes are counted.

5.6.4 Where teachers are required to attend school or elsewhere when the school is not open for instruction pursuant to clauses 5.6.2 and 5.6.3 above, they will be reimbursed for any actual and reasonable costs incurred.

5.6.5 When teachers are required to attend school or elsewhere between 8.30am and 4.30pm on any of Monday to Friday during the term dates prescribed by the Minister, but the school is not open for instruction, clause 5.6.4 does not apply.

Note 1: Clause 5.6.5 also applies to Saturdays and Sundays where a school opens for instruction on those days as part of their usual timetable.

Note 2: This provision does not apply to teachers in Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu. The provisions applying to those teachers are contained in Part Eleven of this agreement.

Part 6: Leave

6.1 Leave under the Holidays Act 2003

Note: The following provisions are inclusive of and not in addition to the provisions of the Holidays Act 2003. Teachers can obtain more information about their entitlements under the Act from the Association and from the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment – see <https://www.employment.govt.nz/leave-and-holidays/>

- 6.1.1 In accordance with the Holidays Act 2003, teachers, other than short-term relievers, are entitled to paid annual holidays in respect of each completed 12 months of continuous employment (see s16 of the Holidays Act 2003 for the impact of leave without pay on continuous employment).
- 6.1.2 When not on annual holidays teachers have discretion about whether, where and when they carry out their duties during periods when students are not in attendance or when teachers have no timetabled hours or other duties that require them to be at school, subject to clauses 5.1.2, 5.6.2 and 5.6.3 above.
- 6.1.3 When Annual Holidays will be taken - Closedown
 - (a) A teacher must take their annual holidays when the school customarily closes for instruction as follows:
 - (i) the close down period will commence each year upon completion of the half days the school is required to be open as set out in clause 5.4.3 except where the school operates an alternative calendar
 - (ii) schools that operate an alternative calendar may operate two or more closedowns during term breaks which are notified to teachers at the commencement of each school year.
 - (b) The teacher will be given at least 14 days' notice of the closedown dates.
 - (c) Where the Holidays Act 2003 entitles a teacher to take sick, bereavement and/or family violence leave during some or all of the closedown period, the teacher will take their annual holidays at another time, usually during a term break, by prior arrangement with the employer whose consent will not be unreasonably withheld. Where agreement between the employer and teacher cannot be reached, the employer may direct the teacher to take their annual holidays by giving the teacher not less than 14 days' notice.
 - (d) Where a teacher takes paid sick or family violence leave during a period of annual holidays, the leave will be deducted from their balance.

6.2 Sick Leave

6.2.1 Sick Leave Entitlement

- (a) A teacher is entitled to sick leave on pay on account of sickness or injury as follows:

	Annual Entitlement	Accumulated Entitlement
Upon first appointment to a teaching position in a state or state integrated school	20 days	20 days
6 months service	10 days	30 days
12 months service	10 days	40 days
18 months service	10 days	50 days
24 months service	10 days	60 days
30 months service	10 days	70 days
Each subsequent 12 months of completed continuous service	10 days	+10 days

- (b) The amount of sick leave available will be the teacher's accumulated entitlement as set out above, less the total amount of paid sick leave the teacher has taken during their aggregate teaching service.
- (c) For the purposes of sick leave, service is the aggregate of:
- (i) all full and part-time employment as a teacher in any state or state-integrated school; plus
 - (ii) any service granted under clause 6.2.2 below; and
 - (iii) all short-term relief worked in any state or state-integrated school on the basis that every 190 days or 950 hours equals one year of sick leave service.
- (d) The amount of sick leave available to a teacher returning to teaching service following a break in service will be the balance that applied on their last day of employment plus any additional entitlement that may be credited under clause 6.2.2. Any part-year employment completed prior to the break in service will be counted towards the timing of their next entitlement after return to service. Further entitlements will be granted when the teacher reaches the next entitlement threshold as outlined in clause 6.2.1(a) above.

6.3.2 Recognition of other employment for additional sick leave purposes

- (a) Upon first appointment to a teaching position in a state or state integrated school, or following a break in service, the following employment outside of teaching service in state or state-integrated schools will be recognised for sick leave purposes:
- (i) Employment as a teacher in a New Zealand free kindergarten association, university, or polytechnic and/or employment as a teacher in Fiji, Cook Islands, Tonga, Samoa or Niue registered schools. For this purpose, permanent part-time employment and non-permanent employment that consists of employment for 20 hours or more per week will be recognised as full-time employment under this Agreement. Non-permanent part-time employment of less than 20 hours per week will be credited as follows:
 - 80 hours are recognised as the equivalent of one month of employment under this Agreement, and
 - 1000 hours are recognised as the equivalent of one year of employment under this Agreement.

- (ii) Employment in the New Zealand Public Service and/or Armed Forces may be credited on such terms as the Secretary for Education may agree.
 - (b) Any sick leave entitlement credited under clause 6.2.2(a) will be reduced by the amount of sick leave taken during the applicable periods of employment.
 - (c) Employment as a transferred employee will be recognised as service for sick leave purposes.
 - (d) Any sick leave taken while employed as a transferred employee at a converted school will be deducted from the employee's sick leave balance.
 - (e) Recognition of service as a transferred employee at a converted school is conditional on the employee providing a certificate of service from the converted school which shows the employee's length of service, how many days' sick leave was taken at the converted school, and any other information necessary to determine sick leave entitlements.
- 6.2.3 Taking sick leave
- (a) A teacher, other than a short-term reliever, who has sick leave entitlement available under clause 6.2.1 may take sick leave on pay when they are absent because they are sick or injured or where the teacher's spouse, partner, or someone dependent on the teacher for care is sick or injured.
 - (b) The employer may grant paid sick leave in advance from the teacher's next annual entitlement i.e., up to 10 days, which will be deducted from their next annual entitlement.
 - (c) Teachers will have sick leave deducted from their entitlements set out in clause 6.2.1 above as follows:
 - (i) Sick leave is only deducted on days that the school is open for instruction, and on which the teacher would normally have worked.
 - (ii) For full-time teachers sick leave will not be deducted for an absence that is less than two hours.
 - (iii) For part-time teachers sick leave will not be deducted for an absence that is less than 25% of the hours normally worked on that day.
- 6.2.4 Sick leave for Short Term Relievers
- (a) A short-term reliever who has accepted an offer of a period of short-term relief teaching and who cannot work on a day(s) during that period is entitled to paid sick leave for the day or hours they would have worked, provided they have sick leave entitlement available under clause 6.2.1.
 - (b) Short term relievers may use sick leave because they are sick or injured, or because their spouse, partner, or someone dependent on the short-term reliever for care is sick or injured.
- 6.2.5 Medical Evidence
- (a) While a medical certificate will not normally be required for leave of within five consecutive calendar days, where it is considered warranted, an employer may require a teacher to produce a medical certificate or other evidence of sickness or injury satisfactory to the employer. If so, the employer will agree to meet the employee's reasonable expenses in obtaining proof.
 - (b) When more than five consecutive calendar days sick leave is taken a medical certificate from a registered health practitioner may be required to be provided to the employer. If the teacher cannot obtain a medical certificate, other evidence of sickness or injury satisfactory to the employer may be provided.

- (c) When a period of sick leave exceeds 14 working days the employer may require the teacher to:
 - (i) provide a medical certificate from a registered health practitioner stating the expected date the teacher will be able to return to work. The employer may require the teacher to provide further medical certificates should the sick leave continue beyond the expected date of return stated in this or subsequent medical certificates.
 - (ii) obtain a second medical opinion from an independent registered health practitioner nominated by the employer and agreed to by the teacher, provided that such agreement will not be unreasonably withheld. The cost of a second medical opinion will be met by the employer.
- 6.2.5 Teachers temporarily working reduced hours on account of sickness
- (a) The employer may allow, at its discretion, a teacher who has been on sick leave to return to duty on a reduced hours basis, usually for a period of no more than six weeks, if:
 - the teacher's doctor recommends and provides a medical clearance for the return to work, and
 - there would be no staffing or timetabling problems for the school.
 - (b) The daily hours the teacher does not work each week will be aggregated and deducted as sick leave as a proportion of the total hours they would usually work in that week.
- 6.2.7 Absences due to an injury or accident covered by the Accident Compensation Corporation
- (a) When a teacher is absent on account of a work-related injury by accident that is covered by the Accident Compensation Corporation, no sick leave will be deducted for the period of absence.
 - (b) When a teacher is absent on account of a non-work-related injury by accident covered by the Accident Compensation Corporation the payment of earnings-related compensation plus the teacher's sick leave (where leave is available) will equal the teacher's normal remuneration.
- 6.2.8 Disregarded sick leave
- (a) Subject to (e) below, disregarded sick leave not exceeding an overall aggregate of two years will be granted by the Secretary for Education where in the opinion of the Secretary one of the following conditions has been met:
 - (i) The sickness can be traced directly to the conditions or circumstances under which the teacher is working; or
 - (ii) The injury occurred in the discharge of the teacher's duties through no fault of the teacher and where no payment has been made by the Accident Compensation Corporation; or
 - (iii) The teacher has contracted a notifiable disease listed in Part 1 of Schedule 1 of the Health Act 1956, and the teacher is either:
 - complying with a written request or direction from a Medical Officer of Health under the Health Act 1956 to refrain from attending school for a specified period, or
 - is otherwise required by a relevant Public Health Order to refrain from attending school for a specified period;

- (iv) The teacher has contracted hepatitis or tuberculosis, where the period of disregarded sick leave is the time that the teacher's treating registered medical practitioner decides is necessary for the teacher to remain away from school; or
- (v) The absence was due to war injury or service.
- (b) Where sick leave has been deducted for any period granted as disregarded sick leave under clauses 6.2.8(a)(i) to 6.2.8(a)(v) above, the sick leave will be reinstated.
- (c) Disregarded sick leave is additional to any period of absence on account of sickness or injury to which the teacher is entitled with full salary in accordance with the scale set out in clause 6.2.1 above.
- (d) Fixed term or relieving teachers will only be granted disregarded sick leave, as provided for in clause 6.2.8(a) above, where they have been in continuous employment before the date of application.
- (e) Disregarded sick leave will not be granted by the Secretary for Education:
 - (i) Where the raising of a complaint/personal grievance against the employer has substantially caused a stress-related or non-physical illness.
 - (ii) Where the employee being subject to a disciplinary or competency process has substantially caused the sickness.
 - (iii) Where the employer has agreed to support an application for disregarded sick leave as part of settlement of an employment relationship problem or a negotiated exit from employment.
 - (iv) Where payment has been made by the Accident Compensation Corporation.
- (f) For the avoidance of doubt:
 - (i) Where an employee qualifies for disregarded sick leave, that qualification is not lost by subsequent raising or pursuit of a personal grievance/complaint, nor by the employer's subsequent initiation of a performance management process.
 - (ii) If a personal grievance is raised as the result of the employer's handling of an employee's request for disregarded sick leave, this does not disqualify the employee from being granted disregarded sick leave.
 - (iii) Illnesses (including those that are stress-related) that are not barred by (e) above can confer eligibility for disregarded sick leave.

6.3 Parental Provisions

- 6.3.1 The teacher is entitled to take parental leave under the Parental Leave and Employment Protection Act 1987 (PLEPA). In addition to the teacher's rights under the PLEPA the following will apply:
- (a) Parental leave may commence at any time during the pregnancy subject to the teacher giving the employer one month's notice in writing, supported by a medical certificate. A shorter period of notice will be accepted on the recommendation of a medical practitioner. The teacher can take up to 12 months unpaid leave from the date of birth, or in the case of adoption, whangai or Home for Life placement of a child under the age of six years, from the date the teacher becomes the primary carer.
 - (b) A teacher with 12 months or more service (including as a transferred employee) will be entitled to up to a further 12 months' unpaid leave (bringing the total entitlement to a maximum of 24 months' continuous leave including leave taken prior to the birth of the teacher's child) subject to notifying their employer in writing of their intention to take this leave within 9 months from the date of commencing leave under clause 6.3.1(a);

- (c) The teacher's position will be held open, subject to the surplus staffing provisions of clause 3.9 of this Agreement, for the duration of their parental leave. If a relieving teacher is employed it will be a condition of the relieving appointment that it will be terminated by the employer concerned within one month from the date that the permanent incumbent gives notice of their intention to return to work early. A teacher must give their employer at least one month's notice if it is their intention to return to work before their parental leave expires. This provision will not apply in the case of a teacher who has had a miscarriage or a stillborn child. In such cases the teacher may elect to return to work immediately.
- (d) A teacher intending to resign because of pregnancy must be advised of their right to take parental leave.
Service as a transferred employee will be recognised for the purposes of eligibility to take parental leave. Note: Employment as a longterm reliever covering a teacher on parental leave does not generate an entitlement to permanency in the event that the teacher on leave resigns.

6.3.2 Parental Grant

A teacher who takes parental leave in order to be the primary carer, or resigns due to pregnancy, is entitled to a payment equal to 6 weeks' salary calculated at the rate applicable in the teacher's last full working week prior to the commencement of their leave or date of resignation. The payment is not pro-rated if the teacher takes less than 6 weeks' leave. The grant is payable following production of a birth certificate or suitable evidence of placement.

Primary carer means:

The biological mother of the child, or their spouse or partner, where they take primary responsibility for the care, development, and upbringing of the child during the first six weeks following the child's birth.

In the case of adoption, whangai or Home for Life placement, the person who takes permanent primary responsibility for the care development and upbringing of the child during the first six weeks of the placement.

6.3.3 Sick Leave During Pregnancy and while on Parental Leave

Periods of illness due to pregnancy prior to the birth may be charged against the teacher's sick leave entitlement. Normal rules for sick leave with regard to production of a medical certificate apply. Once the teacher has commenced parental leave, any day(s) of sickness must be leave without pay and in no circumstances may a teacher have an absence during or following the birth of the child credited against their sick leave entitlement.

6.3.4 Leave to Attend Partner at Birth of their Child

- (a) Permanently appointed teachers will be granted two days paid leave to attend their partner at the birth of their child.
- (b) Reasonable notice must be provided to the employer before and at the time of the teacher taking leave.

6.4 Bereavement/Tangihanga Leave for Death in New Zealand or Overseas

- 6.4.1 Teachers will be granted leave with pay to allow a reasonable opportunity to discharge their obligations and/or to pay their respects to a deceased person with whom they have had a close association. Such obligations may exist because of blood or family ties or because of particular cultural requirements such as attendance at all or part of a tangihanga (or its equivalent).

- 6.4.2 In granting time off therefore, and for how long, the following points must be taken into account:
- (a) The closeness of the association between the teacher and the deceased;
(Note: This association need not be a blood relationship.)

- (b) Search and Rescue. Where a teacher is a member of an authorised search and rescue organisation and is requested by a responsible authority to take part in a search and rescue operation (leave with pay). 6.7.1 Full-time registered teachers who have attained the Experienced Classroom Teacher level of the Professional Standards will be entitled (subject to clause 6.7.2) to take unpaid refreshment leave of one school term after three years in the school or up to one school year after five years in the school. When a period of refreshment leave has been taken, a further period of qualifying service in the school, from the date of return from leave, is required before the teacher may be considered for further refreshment leave.

6.7.2 The ability to take up the entitlement to refreshment leave in clause 6.7.1 is subject to:

- (a) The teacher providing reasonable notice to the employer of their intention to take refreshment leave; and
- (b) The employer's ability to find a suitable reliever to fill the vacancy created by the teacher taking the leave. A suitable reliever is a teacher who will be able, to the satisfaction of the employer, to relieve in the school during the period of the teacher's leave. The employer will use reasonable endeavour to find a suitable reliever. Reasonable endeavour in this context means accessing the usual pool of relievers, advertising locally if necessary, and does not mean advertising regionally or nationally, except as required in this agreement. It does not require the employer to place more than one advertisement; and
- (c) The teacher not being subject to current competence or disciplinary processes under this agreement or previous agreement or employment contract at the time that leave is sought; and
- (d) The maximum number of teachers who can be on refreshment leave at any one time in a school is calculated as follows:

Up to 15 teachers	Two teachers on leave
16 to 21 teachers	Three teachers on leave
22 or more teachers	Four teachers on leave

Where more than the maximum number of teachers in the school request refreshment leave, priority will be dependent on the length of service of the individual teachers in the school.

- (e) A teacher in receipt of the allowance for the Kāhui Ako Teacher (across community) role may apply for refreshment leave to be taken while they hold that role provided the duration of the leave is no more than one term and that any application for the leave has the support of their employing board which shall consider the needs of the wider Kāhui Ako.

Note: A teacher in receipt of the allowance for the Kāhui Ako Teacher (across community) role may apply in their last year of tenure in the role for their full entitlement to refreshment leave which is to be taken in the following school year.

6.7.3 Time off on refreshment leave will count as service for the purpose of salary increments, long service and severance calculations. It will not count for the purposes of sick leave or holiday pay calculations or for entitlement to public holidays.

6.7.4 Teachers on refreshment leave of greater than one term who are eligible for an annual increment during the period of their leave will not require attestation for that increment providing their previous two attestations were satisfactory.

6.7.5 A teacher may not take up a teaching position in another state or integrated or charter school while on refreshment leave. This restriction does not preclude a teacher on refreshment leave agreeing to undertake short-term relief provided the total number does not exceed 10 days (or 50 hours) per term.

Note: The qualifying periods set out in clause 6.7.1 for refreshment leave relate solely to this provision and do not apply to any other forms of leave.

6.8 Other Forms of Leave

6.8.1 Nothing in this agreement limits the facility for teachers to apply to the employer for leave with or without pay in any circumstance not specified.

6.9 Travelling Time for Leave Purposes

Where specifically approved in this agreement (and including teachers at in-service courses and on outdoor education) travelling time with pay for a period of up to seven days (exclusive of public holidays) may be granted subject to the following conditions:

- (a) Leave for travelling can only be granted if the teacher is required to travel when the school is open;
- (b) The quickest and most direct means of travel will be used;
- (c) No travelling time is granted for a journey that is preceded by leave without pay or for a return journey that is followed by a period of leave without pay.

6.10 Leave Records

6.10.1 Leave records for teachers should clearly indicate all sick leave, leave without pay, periods of special leave and periods during which accident compensation may be granted.

6.11 Family Violence Leave

6.11.1 Leave as provided for by the Holidays Act 2003 is in addition to other leave allowances within this collective agreement.

Note 1: The leave provisions set out in this Part of the Agreement will be applied in accordance with any administrative conditions that were in effect at the commencement of this Agreement. Nothing in these provisions will be read as extending any entitlement beyond that which existed at the commencement of this Agreement except as may be expressly agreed to by the Secretary for Education after consultation with the Association.

Note 2: The parties acknowledge that the leave provisions of this Agreement (and their administration) operate to provide entitlements equal to, or in excess of, those provided under the Holidays Act 2003. To this extent the parties agree that current administrative practices will continue to operate and, for clarity, teachers will take their annual leave outside the gazetted term dates.

Personal grievances and disputes will be addressed in accordance with the provisions of Part 9 of the Employment Relations Act 2000.

9.1 Employment Relationship Problem Resolution Services

The following is a plain language explanation of the employment relationship problem resolution services.

What is an employment relationship problem? It is a problem between employee and employer. For example, it might be a personal grievance or a dispute about a provision in an employment agreement.

Resolving an employment relationship problem The employee and employer should first make a reasonable effort to discuss the problem and settle it by mutual agreement. (If it's a personal grievance, it must first be raised with the employer and within 90 days, except for sexual harassment which must be raised within 12 months. - Personal Grievances are explained further below).

An employee (or employer) has the right to be represented at any stage.

When a problem arises, union members should contact their local Association field officer for advice and representation.

Employers should contact their local NZSBA adviser or other representative of their choice.

Personal Grievances A personal grievance is a particular type of employment relationship problem that normally must be raised with the employer within 90 days of the grievance arising, except for sexual harassment which must be raised within 12 months of the grievance arising. An employee may have a personal grievance where:

- They have been dismissed without good reason, or the dismissal was not carried out properly.
- They have been treated unfairly.
- Their employment or a condition of their employment has been affected to their disadvantage by an unjustified action of their employer.
- They have experienced sexual or racial harassment, or have been discriminated against because of their involvement in a union or other employee organisation, or have suffered duress over membership or non-membership of a union or other employee organisation.
- They have been discriminated against in terms of the prohibited grounds of discrimination under the Human Rights Act 1993.

Note: The full meaning of the terms personal grievance, discrimination, sexual harassment, racial harassment, and duress, will be the meaning given by sections 103 to 110 inclusive of the Employment Relations Act 2000.

As with other employment relationship problems, the parties should always try to resolve a personal grievance through discussion.

Either party can refer a personal grievance to the Employment Relations Service of the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment for mediation assistance, or to the Employment Relations Authority.

If the problem relates to a type of discrimination that can be the subject of a complaint to the Human Rights Commission under the Human Rights Act 1993, the person can either take a personal grievance, or complain to the Human Rights Commission, but not both. If in doubt, advice should be sought before deciding.

Services Available To help resolve employment relationship problems, Employment New Zealand provides:

- An information service - This is free. It is available by contacting Employment New Zealand or by phoning toll free 0800 209020. The Employment New Zealand Relations Service's internet address is www.employment.govt.nz.
- Mediation Service - The Mediation Service is a free and independent service available through the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment. This service helps to resolve employment relationship problems and generally to promote the smooth conduct of employment relationships. Mediation is a mutual problem-solving process, with the aim of reaching an agreement, assisted by an independent third party. If the parties can't reach a settlement they can ask the mediator, in writing, to make a final and binding decision. A settlement reached through mediation and signed by the mediator at the request of the parties is final, binding and enforceable. Neither party can then take the matter any further and, either party can be made to comply with the agreed settlement by court order. If the problem is unresolved through mediation either party may apply to have the matter dealt with by the Employment Relations Authority.
- The Employment Relations Authority - This Authority is an investigative body that operates in an informal way. It looks into the facts and makes a decision on the merits of the case and not on the legal technicalities. Either an employer or an employee can refer an unresolved employment relationship problem to the Authority by filing the appropriate forms. The Authority may call evidence, hold investigative meetings, or interview anyone involved. It can direct the parties to try mediation. If mediation is unsuitable or has not resolved the problem, the Authority will make a decision that is binding on all parties. Any party can contest the Authority's decision through the Employment Court.

Note: All employment relationship problems, including personal grievances and any dispute about the interpretation or application of this agreement, must be resolved under Parts 9 and 10 of the Employment Relations Act 2000.

9.2

Personal Grievances

Sections 103 to 110B are reproduced below from Part 9 of the Employment Relations Act 2000.

103 Personal grievance

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, personal grievance means any grievance that an employee may have against the employee's employer or former employer because of a claim—
- (a) that the employee has been unjustifiably dismissed; or
 - (b) that the employee's employment, or 1 or more conditions of the employee's employment (including any condition that survives termination of the employment), is or are or was (during employment that has since been terminated) affected to the employee's disadvantage by some unjustifiable action by the employer; or
 - (c) that the employee has been discriminated against in the employee's employment; or
 - (d) that the employee has been sexually harassed in the employee's employment; or

- (da) that the employee has been treated adversely in the employee's employment on the ground that the employee is, or is suspected or assumed or believed to be, a person affected by family violence; or
 - (e) that the employee has been racially harassed in the employee's employment; or
 - (f) that the employee has been subject to duress in the employee's employment in relation to membership or non-membership of a union or employees organisation; or
 - (g) that the employee's employer has failed to comply with a requirement of Part 6A; or
 - (h) that the employee has been disadvantaged by the employee's employment agreement not being in accordance with section 67C, 67D, 67G, or 67H; or
 - (i) that the employee's employer has contravened section 67F or 67G(3); or
 - (j) that the employee's employer has, in relation to the employee,—
 - (i) engaged in adverse conduct for a prohibited health and safety reason; or
 - (ii) contravened section 92 of the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015 (which prohibits coercion or inducement); or
 - (ja) that the employee's employer has, in relation to the employee, engaged in adverse conduct for a remuneration disclosure reason; or
 - (k) that the employer has retaliated, or threatened to retaliate, against the employee in breach of section 21 of the Protected Disclosures (Protection of Whistleblowers) Act 2022 (because the employee intends to make or has made a protected disclosure).
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, a representative, in relation to an employer and in relation to an alleged personal grievance, means a person—
- (a) who is employed by that employer; and
 - (b) who either—
 - (i) has authority over the employee alleging the grievance; or
 - (ii) is in a position of authority over other employees in the workplace of the employee alleging the grievance.
- (3) In subsection (1)(b), unjustifiable action by the employer does not include an action deriving solely from the interpretation, application, or operation, or disputed interpretation, application, or operation, of any provision of any employment agreement.
- (4) For the purposes of sections 103B, 115A, and 123A, the provisions of this Act that describe, define terms relating to, and provide for the application of the grounds for a personal grievance under subsection (1) apply with all necessary modifications as if—
- (a) references to the employer were references to the controlling third party; and
 - (b) references to the employee's employment included work the employee has performed under the control or direction of a controlling third party.

103A Test of justification

- (1) For the purposes of section 103(1)(a) and (b), the question of whether a dismissal or an action was justifiable must be determined, on an objective basis, by applying the test in subsection (2).

- (2) The test is whether the employer's actions, and how the employer acted, were what a fair and reasonable employer could have done in all the circumstances at the time the dismissal or action occurred.
- (3) In applying the test in subsection (2), the Authority or the court must consider—
 - (a) whether, having regard to the resources available to the employer, the employer sufficiently investigated the allegations against the employee before dismissing or taking action against the employee; and
 - (b) whether the employer raised the concerns that the employer had with the employee before dismissing or taking action against the employee; and
 - (c) whether the employer gave the employee a reasonable opportunity to respond to the employer's concerns before dismissing or taking action against the employee; and
 - (d) whether the employer genuinely considered the employee's explanation (if any) in relation to the allegations against the employee before dismissing or taking action against the employee.
- (4) In addition to the factors described in subsection (3), the Authority or the court may consider any other factors it thinks appropriate.
- (5) The Authority or the court must not determine a dismissal or an action to be unjustifiable under this section solely because of defects in the process followed by the employer if the defects were—
 - (a) minor; and
 - (b) did not result in the employee being treated unfairly.

103B Joining controlling third party to personal grievance

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an employee has—
 - (i) raised a personal grievance in accordance with section 114; and
 - (ii) applied to the Authority to resolve a personal grievance with the employee's employer; and
 - (b) the personal grievance relates to an action that is alleged to have occurred while the employee was working under the control or direction of a controlling third party.
- (2) The employee or the employer, or both, may apply to the Authority or the court to join the controlling third party to the proceedings to resolve the personal grievance.
- (3) The Authority or the court must grant the application to join a controlling third party if the Authority or the court is satisfied—
 - (a) that the requirement to notify the controlling third party in accordance with section 115A has been complied with; and
 - (b) that an arguable case has been made out—
 - (i) that the party to be joined to the proceedings is a controlling third party; and
 - (ii) that the party's actions caused or contributed to the personal grievance.
- (4) The Authority or the court may, at any stage of the proceedings, of its own motion join a controlling third party to the proceedings by order.
- (5) If the Authority or the court joins the controlling third party to the proceedings, the Authority or the court must consider whether to direct the employer, the employee, and the controlling third party to use mediation services to seek to resolve the personal grievance.

104 Discrimination

- (1) For the purposes of section 103(1)(c), an employee is discriminated against in that employee's employment if the employee's employer or a representative of that employer, by reason directly or indirectly of any of the prohibited grounds of discrimination specified in section 105, or the employee's union membership status or involvement in union activities of a union in terms of section 107 –
 - (a) refuses or omits to offer or afford to that employee the same terms of employment, conditions of work, fringe benefits, or opportunities for training, promotion, and transfer as are made available for other employees of the same or substantially similar qualifications, experience, or skills employed in the same or substantially similar circumstances; or
 - (b) dismisses that employee or subjects that employee to any detriment, in circumstances in which other employees employed by that employer on work of that description are not or would not be dismissed or subjected to such detriment; or
 - (c) retires that employee, or requires or causes that employee to retire or resign.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, detriment includes anything that has a detrimental effect on the employee's employment, job performance, or job satisfaction.
- (3) This section is subject to the exceptions set out in section 106.

105 Prohibited grounds of discrimination for purposes of section 104

- (4) Despite section 104, an employee is not discriminated against in that employee's employment simply because the employee's employment agreement or terms and conditions of employment are different from those of another employee employed by the same employer by reason of the employee being a member of a union.
- (5) Section 104 must be read subject to section 9(3).

107 Definition of union membership status or involvement in activities of union for purposes of section 104

- (1) For the purposes of section 104, involvement in union activities means that, within the 18 months before the action complained of, the employee –

- 10.4.2 For the purposes of clause 10.4.1(e) the union must:
- (i) supply to the employer a list of members who attended the union meeting; and
 - (ii) advise the employer of the duration of the meeting.

10.5 Employment Relations Education Leave

- 10.5.1 Attention is drawn to Part 7 of the Employment Relations Act 2000 which provides that eligible employees may take paid employment relations education leave to undertake approved courses in employment relations education if the Association allocates employment relations education leave to them. Employment relations education leave can only be used for education of a type that is approved by the Minister of Labour for the purpose of improving relationships between unions, employees and employers.

Part 11: Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu (Correspondence School)

11.1 General

- 11.1.1 Except as is expressly provided otherwise in this Part the terms and conditions of employment of secondary teachers in Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu (Te Kura) are those set out in this agreement.

11.2 Hours of Work

- 11.2.1 In order to carry out their duties in terms of this agreement it may be necessary for teachers to work for more than 40 hours per week. The normal hours of work for teachers however should, as far as practicable, not exceed 40 hours per week Monday to Friday.
- 11.2.2 Teachers are normally required to be present on the site for at least 35 of their working hours per week. These hours may be worked between 7.00am and 6.00pm daily from Monday to Friday inclusive, with a required core attendance time of 9.00am to 3.00pm. A lunch break of one hour is to be taken generally between the hours of 12.00noon and 2.00pm (unless agreed otherwise) provided that the timing of the lunch break does not interfere with operational activities.
- 11.2.3 Where, with the agreement of the employer, a teacher works flexible hours the teacher may be required to keep a record of attendance.
- 11.2.4 The parties recognise the need for kaiako to have sufficient time to engage with whānau and ākonga in order to deliver high-quality, future-focused, teaching and learning and that Student: Teacher ratios are a crucial part of that. The employer, following consultation with kaiako, will annually review: Ākonga: Subject kaiako ratios;
- circumstances where individual teachers have an ākonga: subject Kaiako ratio consistently above allocations;
 - Ākonga: Kaimanaaki ratios; and
 - any other relevant matters.
- 11.2.5 Teachers have flexibility in how they manage their allocated workload and are responsible for raising any workload issues with their employer proactively. Where a teacher raises a workload issue, the teacher should provide supporting information. The employer and the teacher will discuss this with the goal of addressing any reasonable workload concerns. The employer, acting reasonably, will consider the information provided by the teacher and provide the teacher with a written confirmation of whether or not they agree that there is a workload issue and the reasons for this.
- 11.2.6 Where the employer agrees that there is a workload issue, they will work with the teacher to take reasonable steps to manage it.
- 11.2.7 Nothing in clause 11.2.6
- (a) prevents the employer from providing help, advice or guidance to a teacher to help them manage workload; or

- (b) prevents the employer from initiating the process in clause 3.3 where they reasonably consider that the workload issues have arisen as a result of performance issues.

Times During a Term Break

- 11.2.8 The employer may request the services of a teacher during term breaks for a total of up to five days in any 12-month period for the following purposes:
- to participate in professional development opportunities and
 - for school administration, preparation and coordination and/or departmental or related activities and/or community, parent and whānau contact and liaison.
- 11.2.9 The employer will provide the teacher with reasonable notice of a request and wherever possible will take the needs of the individual teacher, and their own initiatives where they can demonstrate they relate to the purpose of the day(s) into account.

11.3 Procedures for Determining Surplus Staffing

- 11.3.1 The provisions below replace clauses 3.9-3.9.9 of this agreement. These provisions apply only to an employee appointed as a permanent secondary teacher at Te Kura.

Note: Trained beginning teachers in their first year have absolute protection and their positions cannot be considered for disestablishment.

11.3.2 Analysis of Staffing Requirements

- (a) Analysis of staffing requirements must be initiated when one or more of the following events indicates to the employer that it may need to reduce or restructure its teaching staff
- (i) Reorganisation, sale, transfer, change of class, merger or closure of the School, and/or
 - (ii) Change in funding allocated to the school board, and/or
 - (iii) Change in student roll numbers as identified through trends and estimates, and/or
 - (iv) Change in secondary staffing functions, including:
- (b) Staffing required to provide teaching and student support services
- (c) Staffing required for cross school distance education functions
- (d) In the event an analysis is initiated, the employer will prepare a consultation document outlining the analysis and potential staffing impacts and provide it to employees, including middle management, and the union for their feedback allowing a period of at least three school weeks.
- (e) The employer will attempt to meet any staffing reduction required through the non- replacement of employees who die, retire, resign, transfer or are promoted. The employer will adopt a policy of reviewing vacancies when staff surpluses are expected to arise whereupon a partial or complete freeze will be placed on recruiting new permanent employees and/or promotions.
- (f) During the consultation process the following voluntary options, as defined in clause 11.3.5, will be made available to all employees on written advice from the employer. The employer will not be bound to agree to any voluntary offer:
- (i) Supernumerary employment
 - (ii) Agreed retraining programme
 - (iii) Severance payment

- (g) The employer's decision will be final. In the case of employees who are job sharing this clause will only apply where both employees volunteer for the options.
- (h) Following consideration of employee input and the effect of attrition and uptake of voluntary options the employer will provide a second consultation document which will include a more detailed analysis that identifies any need to reduce staffing or alter the status of positions. It will also identify the number of permanent full-time teaching equivalent positions which may be disestablished and/ or the permanent teaching positions allocated permanent units that may have their units reduced. Employees will be given a minimum of an additional three school weeks in which to consider and respond to the detailed consultation document. Should the parties agree, the second period of consultation may be shortened or omitted.
- (i) At the conclusion of the consultation period, the employer will consider employee feedback and the effect of further attrition and uptake of voluntary options and make adjustments to the analysis where appropriate. An analysis of staff feedback will be published to all employees of Te Kura covered by the Agreement, and to the Association.
- (j) Proposed changes will not be put into effect until a minimum of 14 school weeks have elapsed from the publishing of the analysis referred to in (e) above.

11.3.3 Identification of Affected Employees

The employer after consultation with a nominee of the national executive of the Association will identify the teaching positions to be disestablished. Where the number of permanent teaching positions required, are less than the number of teacher(s) currently holding those designated position(s), the teacher(s) will be identified as surplus in accordance with the following guidelines in the order stated:

- (i) Staffing function as described in clause 11.3.2(a)(iv) above.
- (ii) The tenure of the position(s) being considered; and
- (iii) The duration of service in Te Kura of teachers holding any positions being considered.

Note: A judgement of whether the teacher is competent to teach is not one of the criteria for selection and should not be a consideration for disestablishment. Matters of competence will be dealt with in terms of clause 3.3 of the agreement. The problem resolution provisions in Part Nine of this agreement are available to an employee who is aggrieved by any action of their employer taken under these provisions.

11.3.4 Notice of Disestablishment

The employee will receive, in writing, 12 school weeks' notice of disestablishment of their position. The teacher will be entitled to take all that time to make a decision on which option or options (as set out below) to take. If the teacher decides prior to the expiry of the 12 school week notice period to take the severance payment option, payment in lieu for the 12 school week notice period or part thereof may be made at the employer's discretion.

The employee will be entitled to choose an option from the following list of options, or may consult with the employer over any combination of the options:

- (i) Supernumerary employment
- (ii) Redeployment to a suitable alternative position which may involve a
- (iii) reduction in hours

- (iv) Agreed retraining programme
- (v) Severance payment.

11.3.5 Provisions Covering Surplus Staffing Options

The details on the options are as follows:

(1) Supernumerary Employment

Supernumerary employment is employment for a period of up to thirty school weeks. An employee whose position is disestablished as a result of voluntary election or otherwise who has either elected to be employed as a supernumerary teacher, or who has not taken up any of the other options set out in clause 11.3.4 before the date of disestablishment, will be entitled to supernumerary employment in accordance with the following provisions:

- (a) The employee will continue to be employed at their existing salary for a period of thirty school weeks from the effective date of the disestablishment of the position (normally at the beginning of term one of the following year);
- (b) The employee may elect to take up their supernumerary employment at Te Kura or at any other school at the request of the employee and with the approval of both Te Kura and the board at the other school;
- (c) The employee will apply for suitable permanent vacancies at other schools;
- (d) The employer will encourage the employee to find a suitable alternative permanent teaching position and will meet the actual and reasonable expenses of attending interviews at other schools where prior approval is given;
- (e) If during the supernumerary period the employee applies for a permanent position of equal or lower status for which they are suitable at Te Kura, they will be appointed to that position;
- (f) The employee's supernumerary employment will cease upon the employee being appointed to a new teaching position or upon the employee choosing to resign or at the expiration of 30 school weeks from the effective date of the disestablishment of the position, whichever is the earlier;
- (g) Where a supernumerary teacher is appointed to a new permanent teaching position and a transfer of location is involved, that employee will be entitled to normal removal expense provisions provided that this entitlement will be exercised once only for each supernumerary period;
- (h) Where a supernumerary teacher declines an offer of suitable appointment at the same salary from Te Kura, or applies for and declines an offer of appointment from another board, the employee's supernumerary status will cease forthwith;
- (i) During any period of supernumerary employment an employee is entitled to any salary increments due;
- (j) During any period of supernumerary employment, the supernumerary teacher will continue to undertake appropriate teaching duties.

(2) Agreed Retraining Programme

Where an employee's position is disestablished as the result of voluntary election or otherwise the employee may elect to take an approved course of study that will enhance or upgrade the employee's skills in secondary teaching, student support services work, and/or in distance education functions, provided that:

- (a) The employee will continue to be employed at their existing salary for a maximum period of 40 school weeks from the effective date of the disestablishment of the position (normally at the beginning of term one of the following year);
- (b) The employee is employed as a supernumerary teacher during this period and has the rights and obligations of a supernumerary teacher except as specifically provided in this clause;
- (c) There is no requirement on the employer to meet any costs and expenses of training, including course fees;
- (d) The employee will provide evidence of attendance at the approved course of study where requested by the employer. The employer may make enquiries during the retraining period to establish that the employee is undertaking the approved course of study.
- (e) Where the approved course of study is for a shorter period than 40 school weeks, or where the course of study commences later than the effective date of disestablishment, the employee is required to attend the school as a supernumerary employee in periods when the school is open for instruction, except in special circumstances approved by the employer;
- (f) Where the employee ceases to attend the course before its completion, further employment will cease, except where the employer agrees that there was just cause for cessation of attendance and the employee will return to the school as a supernumerary for the remainder of the retraining period.

(3) Severance Payment

The teacher may elect severance payment. In that case the teacher will receive a severance payment according to the table below:

Length of service	Weeks of payment (ordinary pay)
Up to 3 years	7 weeks
Over 3 years and up to 5 years	15 weeks
5 years and up to 25 years	23 weeks
25 years and up to 30 years	25 weeks
30 years and over	30 weeks

- (a) The employee will be deemed to have supernumerary status for the period after disestablishment until severance payment is paid. During this period, the rights and obligations of a supernumerary teacher will apply.
- (b) For the purposes of calculating length of service for this clause only service as a teacher in a state or integrated school or as a transferred employee will be counted. Non-permanent part-time service in a school other than Te Kura will be calculated on the basis that 80 hours equals one month's service and 1000 hours equals one year's service. Where non- permanent part-time service consists of 20 or more hours per week it may be credited as full-time service. Te Kura non- permanent part-time service will be credited on the basis of FTTE, and where service consists of 0.8 FTTE or greater it will be credited as full-time service. For the purposes of this clause, service includes service credits for childcare where an employee resigned or took leave to care for their children, on the basis of one-third credit for each year of such leave up to a maximum of five years' credit.

- (c) Where an employee, having received a severance payment, commences permanent employment within a number of weeks which is less than the number of weeks of the payment received by the employee as a severance payment under this clause, the employee will refund the difference between the number of weeks severance payment was received. Provided that, for the purposes of this clause, employment means employment as a teacher in a state or integrated school.
- (d) Any employee receiving the severance payment will be deemed to have been paid in full for service to that date for the purpose of calculating service for any future sick leave, severance or long- service payment entitlements.
- (e) Pay for employees will be defined as:
 - (i) Ordinary pay is defined as basic taxable salary, plus regular taxable allowances paid on a continuous basis at the effective date of disestablishment of the position. For employees on leave without pay, ordinary pay will be the ordinary pay at the time of taking leave;
 - (ii) For full-time employees, "weekly" pay will be 7/365 of ordinary pay;
 - (iii) For part-time employees, "weekly" pay will mean the employee's average weekly earnings for the previous six/twelve months (whichever is more favourable to the employee).

11.3.6 Teachers in Positions of Responsibility

If, after the operation of clause 11.3.2, positions are to be changed in status, the employer, after consultation with a nominee of the national executive of the Association, will identify the positions to be reduced in status in accordance with the following guidelines in the order stated:

- (a) The balance of the distribution of the units among all areas of responsibility and will take cognisance of the staffing requirements of the School as defined in clause 11.3.2(a)(iv);
- (b) Duration of service in the school of teachers holding any positions being considered.

Any teacher who holds a position of responsibility or a position as an assistant or deputy principal and that position is about to have a reduction in status and who applies for the new reduced position as advertised at its new status will be appointed to that position unless in the meantime the teacher has been appointed to another permanent position. The teacher will continue to be paid at the salary they were receiving immediately prior to the reduction for a period of one year so long as they continue to hold that position. This provision is not applicable to the holder of a fixed-term position of responsibility. During any period of salary protection an employee is entitled to any salary increments due.

11.4 Off-Site Allowance

11.4.1 The provisions below replace Clause 7.3 of this agreement.

11.4.2 All employees on official Te Kura business where meals are provided by the employer and who are not receiving the travelling allowance set out in Clause 7.1 and Appendix D will be paid a $15.00 per night off-site allowance for each night spent away from home.

11.4.3 When as a result of such business an employee is unable to return to home or the school (whichever is appropriate) until after 1pm on the final day, but there is no need to stay away for a further night, then the employee will be entitled to an $8.00 off-site allowance in respect of that final day.

11.4.4 Recipients of the off-site allowance are not entitled to the incidentals allowance.

11.5 Management Allowances

11.5.1 For an employee appointed as secondary teacher at Te Kura, these provisions below replace clauses 4.3A.1 to 4.3A.9 of this agreement.

11.5.2 The employer will determine annually the allocation of Management Allowances following consultation with the secondary teaching staff.

11.5.3 Secondary teachers who have a designated curriculum or pastoral management responsibility will be eligible to receive Management Allowances.

11.5.4 At least 85% of the school's Management Allowances must be allocated to secondary teachers with units who have designated curriculum or pastoral management responsibilities.

11.5.5 An individual secondary teacher may be allocated no more than two Management Allowances. If the employer is unable to fully allocate the allowances referred to in clause 11.5.2 then the employer may allocate up to three Management Allowances to any unit holder who meets the criteria in clause 11.5.3.

11.5.6 Up to 30% of the allowances may be allocated on a fixed term basis.

11.5.7 Each Management Allowance will generate an additional salary payment of $2,000 per annum increasing to $2,400 from 28 January 2026.

11.5.8 Management Allowances are not divisible and the attached salary will be paid at the substantive rate to both full-time and part-time teachers.

11.5.9 Where a teacher appointed to a position to which Management Allowances are allocated loses that position, or has the position altered in status, because of the application of the surplus staffing provisions in part eleven of this agreement, the salary protection arrangements in clause 11.3.6 of these provisions will apply. Provided that where the allocation has been made on a fixed- term basis the period of protection will be for the lesser of the term agreed or for one year while the teacher continues to hold a position at the school.

Part 12: Health and Safety

12.1 General

- 12.1.1 The parties recognise the importance of ensuring good and safe working conditions through Health and Safety in the workplace and that it is a mutual obligation of the employer and employees to achieve this through a representative, engagement and participative approach.
- 12.1.2 To this end, the employers' and employees' attention is drawn to the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015 and associated Regulations. This and other legislation, relevant Codes of Practice and Guidelines are the reference points for gaining a common understanding of what those obligations are, what will assist in meeting those mutual obligations and also in promoting best practice.
- 12.1.3 Where employees' health, safety or welfare is shown to be at risk in the carrying out of their duties the employer will take all reasonably practicable steps to eliminate or minimise the identified risk for the employees and to do so in consultation with the relevant health and safety representatives, committees and authorities that may be identified.

12.2 Protective Clothing

- 12.2.1 Where the nature of a teacher's work in science laboratories and workshops is considered to be more than normally destructive to clothing, suitable protective clothing will be issued.
- 12.2.2 Protective clothing may be issued on a permanent basis or on temporary loan as is decided by the employer.
- 12.2.3 Protective clothing issued on temporary loan will be laundered at the employer's expense.

12.3 Safety Glasses

- 12.3.1 Where a teacher is considered to be working in an "eye danger" area the teacher will receive a personal issue of standard neutral safety glasses which will remain the property of the employer.
- 12.3.2 Where a teacher who ordinarily wears optical glasses at work is engaged on work in an "eye danger" area, the teacher will be supplied for the time engaged on such work, with specially hardened neutral "clip on" type safety glasses to be worn over normal glasses, such "clip on" will remain the property of the employer.

12.4 Immunisation

- 12.4.1 The Secretary for Education will advise employers of their responsibility for the immunisation against Hepatitis B of those teachers who, because of the nature of their job may be significantly at risk, as advised by the Director General of Health.

Appendix A: Salary on Appointment

Note: These provisions shall be applied in accordance with any administrative conditions that were in effect at the commencement of this Agreement. Nothing in these provisions shall be read as extending any entitlement beyond that which existed at the commencement of this Agreement except as may be expressly agreed to by the Secretary for Education after consultation with the Association.

1 General

1.1 Salary on appointment depends on qualifications and credit for previous service as set out in 5 to 9 below.

Note: The Ministry of Education | Te Tāhuhu o te Mātauranga verifies the level(s) of qualification(s) for salary purposes using information from the New Zealand Qualifications Authority and the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand.

1.2 Service credits for salary purposes may be made up of teaching service in a New Zealand state or state integrated school (as outlined in clause 5.1 below), other teaching service (as outlined in clauses 6.1-6.4 below), relevant work experience other than teaching (as outlined in clause 7.1 below) and/or childcare (as outlined in clause 8.1 below).

1.3 Except where clause 4.2.2(d) (iii) of Part 4 of this agreement applies for recent teacher education graduates, credit for each period of other teaching service, relevant work experience other than teaching, and childcare will be calculated and credited only once, on appointment or reappointment to a teaching position in a New Zealand secondary school.

1.4 For salary credit purposes the following definitions will apply:

- Full credit means that each year of equivalent service (or part thereof) will count as one year (or part thereof) of teaching service.
- Half credit means that each year of equivalent service (or part thereof) will count as six months (or part thereof) of teaching service.
- One third credit means that each year of equivalent service (or part thereof) will count as four months (or part thereof) of teaching service.

2 First appointment

2.1 When a teacher is appointed to their first teaching position in a state or state integrated school the qualification group determines the entry point on the base salary scale. Service credits are added to that entry point to determine a teacher's salary on appointment.

3 Reappointment after a break in service

3.1 When a teacher returns to a teaching position in a New Zealand secondary school after a break their re-entry point on the base salary scale will be the equivalent of the step held on the date of cessation.

3.2 Where the qualification group of a returning teacher is higher than the one previously held and the entry step for the new qualification group is higher than the step the teacher had progressed to at the date of cessation, the higher step will be the teacher's entry point on the base salary scale.

3.3 Service credit, for service that has not already been credited, will be added to that entry point to determine a teacher's salary on appointment.

4 Improved qualifications for teachers in an ongoing appointment

- 4.1 Teachers in current positions may request assessment of improved or additional qualification(s) as set out in clause 4.2.1(c) of Part 4 of this agreement.

5 Teaching service

- 5.1 Unless otherwise stated, teaching service will be the aggregate of service paid as a teacher in any New Zealand state or state integrated school, as a transferred employee at a charter school, or as a qualified teacher employed within the Ministry of Education | Te Tāhuhu o te Mātauranga, the New Zealand Qualification Authority or the Education Review Office in a role to which their teaching service is relevant as follows:

- (a) the aggregate of teaching service that is:
 - (i) full-time service – where permanent and/or non-permanent full-time and/or non-permanent part-time for 20 hours or more per week will be counted as full time
 - (ii) non-permanent part-time teaching service of less than 20 hours per week, where 80 hours equals one month of full-time service or 1000 hours equals one year of full-time service
 - (iii) all paid holidays, paid leave, periods of sick leave (with or without pay) and any period without pay during a holiday arising from periods of sick leave without pay
 - (iv) special leave without pay, not exceeding an aggregate of three months in any school year. Where a teacher completes verified recognised employment during special leave without pay, the teacher can receive salary credit for either the employment or the aggregate of leave without pay, but not both.

Note: Where special leave without pay of more than three months is taken, and the teacher is not employed during that time in a position on which salary credit is allowable, any period of the leave in excess of three months will not count as service towards the teacher's next incremental date.

6 Other teaching service

- 6.1 Other teaching service for salary purposes will include an aggregate of all teaching service in the employment of:

- (a) a university
- (b) a registered initial teacher education provider
- (c) a polytechnic
- (d) a New Zealand registered private school
- (e) a free kindergarten association and/or registered teacher-led early childhood centre; and/or
- (f) an overseas school provided it was a state school or a school subject to state inspection subject to clause 6.3 below.
- (g) a charter school, except as a transferred employee at a charter school.

- 6.2 Full credit will be granted where the service in clauses 6.1(a) to (g) above was as a registered teacher or was a teacher who held the equivalent of a recognised New Zealand teaching qualification, otherwise where the service in clauses 6.1(a) to (g) above was not as a registered teacher or evidence of registration cannot be provided, half credit will apply.

- 6.3 Overseas teachers who gain registration through either the Teaching Council's comparable qualifications or core components pathways will be deemed to have met the requirements for registration from the date they completed that/those qualification(s). For the purposes of Appendix A clause 6.1, overseas teaching service will count from the date the NZQA deems those qualification(s) to have been completed. Relevant work experience (including overseas teaching service completed prior to that date) will be determined under Appendix A clause 7.1.
- 6.4 Overseas teachers who gain registration through the Teaching Council's discretionary pathway will be deemed to have met the registration requirements from the date registration is granted in New Zealand. Overseas teaching service completed after the date registration is granted in New Zealand will be determined under Appendix A clause 6.1 and relevant work experience (including overseas teaching experience completed prior to the date registration is granted in New Zealand) will be determined under Appendix A clause 7.1.
- 7 Relevant work experience other than teaching
- 7.1 Work experience other than teaching, attested by the employer as being directly relevant to a teacher's curriculum and/or pastoral duties, will receive the following service credit for salary purposes:
- (a) half credit for relevant work experience completed after the completion of a recognised and appropriate vocational qualification that is at least Level 5 on the National Qualifications Framework.
 - (b) one third credit for relevant work experience completed after the completion of a recognised and appropriate vocational qualification that is at least Level 4 on the National Qualifications Framework.
 - (c) one third credit to a maximum of two salary steps for relevant work experience where no vocational qualification at Level 4 or higher on the National Qualifications Framework was completed prior to that work.
- 7.2 Where the highest trade or vocational qualification is below Level 7 on the NQF, a trade or vocations qualification listed in clause 10 of Appendix A (or its equivalent at 5 or 6 on the National Qualifications Framework) will be recognised for G3+ if the teacher has at least 6000 hours of applicable trade or vocational work experience.
- 8 Childcare
- 8.1 One third credit will be given where a teacher resigns or takes leave from the New Zealand teaching service in order to care for their own children provided that the teacher was a registered teacher (or equivalent) at the time of resigning or taking leave, otherwise no credit will be given.
- Note: The one third credit will apply to the total time away from teaching, excluding any periods for which salary credit is given under 5, 6 or 7 above.
- 9 Māori Language Trainees and Te Atākura Graduates
- 9.1 Special service credit – recognition will be given on the basis of one year of salary service for each four years from the date the teacher completed compulsory schooling until entry to an initial teacher education course. Credit is to be given in completed years only. If the teacher has service which can be credited under another category or other categories of service, the total period concerned is to be deducted from the years to be divided by four. All periods of service, including portions of a year under other categories are to be credited for calculating the incremental date on appointment.
- Note: At the time of settlement no initial teacher education courses exist whose graduates will qualify for this entitlement.

10 Vocational or Trade Qualifications

10.1 The following vocational or trade qualifications can be used to establish a teacher's salary qualification group under clause 4.1.2 (bullet 4):

- NZ Certificate in Building, Engineering, Quantity Surveying or Draughting
- Advanced Technical Trade Certificate
- Advanced Trade Certificate

Appendix B: Medical Retirement – Serious Illness

(Where “notes” are used in this Appendix they are explanatory and not substantive.)

1

1.1 A teacher with a terminal illness may apply for medical retirement under either the terminal illness provision or the serious illness provision but not both and will be entitled to one payment only. Note: This provision excludes any claim on disregarded sick leave.

1.2 The purpose of this provision is to:

- (a) Provide the opportunity for teachers, currently in service, who are declared medically unfit to retire from teaching with dignity;
- (b) Give the ability for boards to recruit the best possible teachers to vacant permanent positions without delay.

Note: This provision is for teachers currently in service and cannot be granted retrospectively. ‘Currently in service’ means the teacher is employed in a permanent position at the time the application for medical retirement is made and when concurrence is given by the Secretary for Education. For clarity this applies whether a teacher is currently on paid or unpaid sick leave.

1.3 (a) A permanently appointed teacher, currently in service, may be granted medical retirement under this clause in circumstances where the teacher has a serious illness which causes them to be incapable of continuing to work or returning to work.

Note: Serious illness includes serious injury. Stress is not considered to be a medical diagnosis and so any applications for concurrence on the basis of stress will be declined. However, the medical impact of stress may meet the criteria set out in this provision.

- (b) A teacher is considered to be medically unfit for work by reason of serious illness if they are wholly or substantially unable to perform the duties of the position at the school and is unlikely currently or at any time in the foreseeable future to be able to undertake new employment in any other teaching position in the Education Service (as defined in section 10(7) of the Education and Training Act 2020).

Note: An employee is not eligible for medical retirement where she/he is receiving weekly compensation from Accident Compensation Corporation.

- (c) Either the employee or the employer may initiate the medical retirement process. The employer must have reasonable grounds to initiate the process.

Note: “Reasonable grounds” arise where the employee for a prolonged period is wholly or substantially unable to perform the duties of the position at the school due to medical reasons.

1.4 Employee Initiated Process

- (a) If the employee initiates the process, the employee will provide to the employer from a registered medical specialist in writing the following: a description of the employee’s illness, a statement as to whether or not the employee will be able to wholly or substantially perform their duties both currently and in the foreseeable future, and the reasons for the decision.

Note: There is no provision for an employer to request a second medical specialist certificate

- (b) (i) If the employee is unable to obtain a registered medical specialist opinion in a timely fashion, or by virtue of distance, then the employee will undergo a medical examination from a registered general practitioner. The general practitioner will provide in writing the following:
 - a description of the employee's illness, a statement as to whether or not the employee will be able to wholly or substantially perform their duties both currently and in the foreseeable future, and the reasons for the decision; and
 - attestation that the employee could not obtain an opinion from a registered medical specialist.
- (ii) The employer may require a further medical certificate from a registered general practitioner nominated by the employer.
- (iii) If two medical certificates are sought and the medical opinions conflict, the employee and employer will attempt to agree on a third registered general practitioner or medical specialist to provide a further medical certificate. If they cannot agree, the employer will nominate the registered general practitioner.
- (iv) All costs associated with the second and third medical certificates will be met by the employer.

1.5 Employer Initiated Process

(a) Pre-process

Where the employer has reasonable grounds to consider that the employee may be medically unfit for work by reason of serious illness as per clause 1.3(b) above the employer will in the first instance:

- (i) write to the employee outlining the concerns and the grounds on which it has formed a view that medical retirement may be an appropriate option;
- (ii) inform the employee they are entitled to attend up to three sessions from an Employee Assistance Programme (EAP) and extend to the employee the opportunity to access EAP counselling;
- (iii) outline the medical retirement process should the employer proceed with the process; and
- (iv) inform the employee of their right to have a representative.

Note: Reasonable grounds is explained above. The Employee Assistance Programme provides to the employee direct access to an independent counsellor on a short term, confidential basis to address personal issues that impact on the workplace. Where the EAP provider recommends further sessions the employer will consider whether to fund additional sessions.

Initiation of Process

(b) Registered Medical Specialist

Following the completion of the pre-process

- (i) Where the employer proceeds with the process, the employee will undergo a medical examination from a registered medical specialist nominated by the employer.

Note: No concurrence will be given without the specified medical evidence being provided.
- (ii) The medical specialist will provide in writing a description of the employee's illness, a statement as to whether or not the employee will be able to wholly or substantially perform their duties both currently and in the foreseeable future, and the reasons for the decision.

- (iii) The employee is entitled to seek a second medical specialist's opinion.
 - (iv) Where two medical specialist opinions are sought and these medical opinions agree that the employee will not be able to wholly or substantially perform their duties both currently and in the foreseeable future, then the employer may seek concurrence to medically retire the employee.
- (c) Registered General Practitioner
- (a) If the employer is unable to obtain a registered medical specialist opinion in a timely fashion, or by virtue of distance, then the employee will undergo a medical examination from a registered general practitioner nominated by the employer (or two general practitioners if the employee so wishes, one nominated by the employer and the other by the employee). The general practitioner(s) will provide in writing the following:
- a description of the employee's illness, a statement as to whether or not the employee will be able to wholly or substantially perform their duties both currently and in the foreseeable future, and the reasons for the decision; and
 - attestation that the employee could not obtain an opinion from a registered medical specialist.
- (b) Where two medical opinions from a general practitioner are sought and these medical opinions conflict, the employee and employer will attempt to agree on a third registered general practitioner to provide a further medical certificate. If they cannot agree, the employer will nominate the registered general practitioner.
- (c) Costs associated with examinations
- (d) All costs associated with the medical examination(s) and the employee assistance programme will be met by the employer.
- 1.6 Where the majority of medical evidence does not support a claim for medical retirement under this provision this process will cease.
Note: The intention of this clause is to bring an end to this process.
- 1.7 Seeking Concurrence
- (a) Where the majority of medical evidence supports the application for medical retirement as per clause 1.3(b) above, the employer will seek the concurrence of the Secretary for Education to medically retire the employee.
- (b) All applications for concurrence must be in writing and accompanied by the correct documentation.
- Note: Applications for concurrence for medical retirement will be granted where the following criteria have been met:
- 1: The process has been followed; and
 - 2: The medical evidence has been supplied in sufficient detail so as to support the application for medical retirement as specified in clause 1.3(b) above.
- 1.8 Medical Retirement Options
- Upon receiving notification that the Secretary for Education has granted concurrence, the employer will notify the employee that they are medically retired as of the date of the Secretary's notification. No notice is payable. The employee will be medically retired and choose one of the following medical retirement options:
- Note: The employee is not entitled to change options once the option has been actioned. Disregarded sick leave is not able to be converted to a payment under any of the provisions of medical retirement

(a) Medical Retirement Payment

A lump sum payment of 13 weeks salary plus an additional week for each year of service after 25 years' service in a state or state integrated school or as a transferred employee in a charter school, up to a maximum of 13 weeks (i.e. the total maximum payment payable under this provision is 26 weeks).

Any paid sick leave taken by the employee in the four weeks prior to the application to medically retire will be subtracted from the payment.

Note: Payment will be based on the normal fortnightly salary of the employee at the time of medical retirement. It does not attract any salary increment that may fall due after the date of medical retirement. Holiday pay to the date of medical retirement is payable. The lump sum does not attract holiday pay. 26 weeks equals 13 weeks payment plus up to 13 weeks payment for each year of service after 25 years.

(b) Post-dated medical retirement

The employee remains on paid sick leave and receives their normal fortnightly salary until the sick leave entitlement is exhausted. All entitlements continue to be paid. In the event that the employee deceases before sick leave is exhausted no claim can be made by any person or agency on the outstanding balance. The employee remains employed for the purpose of payment of salary only.

Note: The employee is entitled to continue to receive superannuation employer contributions, and salary increases as per the Secondary Teachers' Collective Agreement. Should a new Secondary Teachers' Collective Agreement be settled after the employee's sick leave entitlement is exhausted, no back payment of any negotiated increases will apply. The employee is not entitled to increment up the salary scale where they have not met the professional standards. Holiday pay will accrue during this period in accordance with the Secondary Teachers' Collective Agreement provisions. Where an employee elects post-dated medical retirement they will continue to be paid sick leave until it is exhausted.

(c) Receive remaining sick leave as a single payment

The employee will receive the remainder of their sick leave as a lump- sum payment.

Note: For the sake of completeness please note that all payments are subject to normal tax provisions.

Note: The employee can cash up the outstanding sick leave balance as at the final day of employment.

1.9

Vacant Position Appointment

From the date the Secretary for Education gives notification of concurrence to medical retirement, regardless of the option chosen by the employee under above, the employer will be entitled to make a permanent appointment to the position as if that position were vacant.

Note: This position will be advertised in the Education Gazette as an actual vacancy position. The Teaching Council will be notified by the employer that the employee has been medically retired.

1.10 Eligibility for Compassionate Grant

A compassionate grant as per clause 4.17 is payable to the estate of an employee who deceases within 12 months of the date medical retirement is approved under this provision (for the sake of clarity this date is from the date of retirement as per clause 1.8 above) except that if the amount of sick leave remaining under option 1.8(b) above exceeds 12 months, the entitlement to the compassionate grant will remain until the sick leave has been exhausted.

Note: Regardless of which entitlement is activated under this scheme, the date of medical retirement is the date the Secretary for Education granted concurrence.

1.11 Re-entry policy

It is not contemplated that when an employee is medically retired from the teaching profession that they will return to work as an employee in the future. It is however acknowledged that in exceptional circumstances an employee may become medically fit to work in the teaching service. Where an employee who has been medically retired under any clause set out in this provision is declared medically fit by a registered medical specialist and is reemployed in any teaching position in the Education Service (as defined in section 10(7) of the Education and Training Act) the following will apply:

- (a) The employee will be entitled to sick leave in accordance with the provisions of the Holidays Act 2003 and not the provisions in the Secondary Teachers' Collective Agreement.
- (b) Where employment in any teaching position in the Education Service (as defined in section 10(7) of the Education and Training Act) commences within a number of weeks which is less than the number of weeks of payment received by the employee under clause 1.8(a) above the employee will refund the difference between the number of weeks for which they were without employment and the number of weeks for which the payment was calculated.
- (c) An employee cannot be medically retired twice for serious illness.

Appendix C: Removal Expenses

1.1 Travel Expenses

1.1.1 The following travel expenses are refundable:

- (a) Taxi fares to and from transport;
- (b) Cost of meals en route;
- (c) Cost of overnight board if stopover unavoidable;
- (d) When travelling by own transport, payment of motor vehicle allowance rates as follows:
 - Motorcar-62 cents per kilometre
 - Motorcycle-20 cents per kilometre.
- (e) Equivalent surface fare for driving a second car or motorcycle which is part of the household effects to the new location provided that the fare would otherwise have been paid under this agreement.

1.2 Accommodation Expenses

1.2.1 Accommodation expenses will be paid for the accommodation of a teacher and any dependants from the time of moving from the former location until permanent accommodation is obtained in the new location.

1.2.2 When moving personal expenses are allowable to cover meals, accommodation, and such other expenses as the employer may approve, for the teacher and any dependants as follows:

- (a) From the commencement of the journey, up to two days if necessary;
- (b) On arrival at destination, up to seven days if necessary.

1.2.3 When dependants are boarding

When approval has been given for a teacher and any dependants to board either together or in different localities, and a home is no longer being maintained at the former location, assistance may be granted in accordance with the following provisions:

- (a) In the first instance, a refund of personal expenses as set out in clause 1.2.2 above;
- (b) At the expiration of this period, an accommodation allowance of the amount by which actual and reasonable board and lodging expenses exceed 45% of gross remuneration. "Gross remuneration" means classified salary plus any allowance in the nature of salary. This is calculated on the consecutive day basis;
- (c) If the teacher and any dependants stay at a motel and they purchase and prepare food, a rent subsidy may be paid. When meals must be taken in a restaurant, payment of the amount by which the total of rent and meals exceeds 45% of gross salary may be paid. The total cost is not to exceed scale relieving allowance rate.

1.2.4 When Maintaining Home at Former Location

A teacher on transfer who is required to maintain the home and any dependants at the former location until suitable housing is obtained in the new location, will be granted an accommodation allowance as follows:

- (a) For the first month, up to a maximum of the rate of $55.29;
- (b) For the second month, up to a maximum of two thirds of the rate of $55.29;
- (c) For the third month, up to a maximum of one third of the rate of the $55.29;
- (d) Teachers staying at a motel and preparing their own meals may be paid an assessed amount for food not exceeding one quarter of the scale relieving allowance rate, plus motel charges. The total cost is not to exceed $55.29;

- (e) The incidentals allowance will also be paid to cover incidental expenses not otherwise recoverable. The allowances commence on and from the day the teacher arrives at the new location;
 - (f) When the teacher finally obtains suitable accommodation in the new location and any dependants then move, the assistance set out in clause 1.2.2 above is granted.
- 1.2.5 Rent Subsidy
 - (a) Assistance with rental accommodation may be considered on the merits of each case if a teacher on transfer is experiencing difficulty in finding permanent housing.
 - (b) The subsidy will be granted only in respect of a short-term tenancy at a rental which is higher than the teacher could normally be expected to afford. The amount of the subsidy will be the excess of the rental over one-sixth of the teacher's gross salary. The period of subsidy is limited to three months. In exceptional cases the Secretary for Education may approve an extension to six months.
 - (c) Furniture storage charges may be met while the teacher is on a rent subsidy.
- 1.2.6 Outgoings on Former Home
 - (a) If the teacher and any dependants are occupying temporary accommodation at the new location (and the teacher receives a rent subsidy), pending the sale of the former home and the purchase of another, then interest, rates and insurance on the former home will be taken into account while it remains unsold and unoccupied. In these circumstances, the outgoings on the teacher's house may be added to the rent of the temporary house, and the subsidy calculated on the combined total. Only mortgage interest may be included, not principal repayments, and this will usually require inquiry, as outgoings quoted by claimants almost always include instalments of principal.
 - (b) If a teacher is required to rent a house at the new location before liability for rent at the previous location has ceased, resulting in the payment of double rent, a rent subsidy equal to the lower of the two rents may be paid.
- 1.3 Furniture Removal
- 1.3.1 Packing, transporting and unpacking of the teacher's household effects will be undertaken by a provider contracted to the Ministry of Education | Te Tāhuhu o te Mātauranga for the transfer of teachers' effects and transit insurance.
- 1.4 Amount of Refund
- 1.4.1 Where a teacher qualifies for an accommodation allowance or rent subsidy, this will include the provision of storage. Reimbursement will be made for the cost of inter-island transport and marine insurance for up to two vehicles and one towed vehicle.
- 1.5 Reserved
- 1.6 Legal Fees and Land Agent's Commission
- 1.6.1 Teachers with an entitlement to removal expenses will be reimbursed for legal fees and land agent's commission provided that when a teacher sells a house at the former location and buys another at the new location within two years of the date of the new appointment, or sells at the former location and builds and takes occupation of a house at the new location within two years of the date of the new appointment, actual aggregated expenses for legal fees and land agent's commission combined up to $11,000 maximum will be paid.

- (a) Legal fees
The refund of legal fees will be either:
 - (i) when a teacher sells a house at the former location within two years of the date of the new appointment, but does not buy another, actual expenses up to $950; or
 - (ii) when a teacher buys or builds a house at the new location within two years of the date of the new appointment without having sold a house at the former location, provided it is not the first time the teacher has owned a house, actual expenses up to $4,000 maximum.
- (b) Land agent's commission
When a teacher sells a house at the former location within two years of the date of the new appointment but does not purchase or build another house at the new location within the two-year period, actual expenses up to $6,300.
- (c) Two-year limitation
Normally all transactions (selling, buying or building) must be completed within two years of the date of transfer to qualify for a refund of expenses.
- (d) Sale of home prior to appointment in another position
Where teachers anticipate securing a position where full removal expenses are payable, and sell their home before this actually occurs, the teacher will be eligible for a refund of legal and land agent's fees. This is subject to a two-year limitation period as in clause 1.6.1(c) above commencing from the date of the sale of the house. The refund of land agent's and legal fees will not be made until and unless the teacher wins and takes up another position.
- (e) Purchase and sale of land
A refund of legal fees and land agent's commission will be made as follows:
 - (i) When a teacher has previously owned a house or land and purchases land following transfer to another locality with the intention of building a house for the teacher's own use and transfers again before the house is built, assistance is granted towards the cost of legal expenses and land agent's commission in the purchase and sale of the land up to $3,800.
 - (ii) When a house or land has not been owned previously and a teacher subsequently purchases land at one locality and transfers again before building, assistance will be granted towards the cost of legal expenses up to $500 and land agent's commission up to $2,000 in the sale of the land as follows:

Note:

 1. Sale of land in a previous locality must be effected within two years of transferring to a new location.
 2. Purchase of land must have been effected not more than two years after the previous transfer and not more than two years before the subsequent transfer.
- (f) Advertising costs of $630 when selling at former location without the services of a land agent.

1.7 Penalty Mortgage Repayment Charges

- 1.7.1 Penalty charges which may arise because of the termination of a mortgage before the completion of the term of the loan will be refunded up to a maximum of $2400.

 - (iii) rents or leases private accommodation.
- (b) $300 for each child who is attending a state or integrated school prior to the date of transfer, who attends another state or integrated school after the transfer and for whom a different uniform is required to be purchased (in terms of the new school's policy) because of the change of school.

1.9 Leave to Remove Dependents and Effects

1.9.1 The following provisions apply when a teacher has left dependents at the former location pending the finding of suitable housing:

- (a) Special leave on pay may be granted by the Secretary for Education to permit the teacher to return to the former centre to assist with the transfer of dependents and effects.
- (b) A refund of actual and reasonable expenses may be approved.

1.10 Payment of Expenses to Visit Prospective Accommodation

1.10.1 A teacher may claim expenses in connection with a visit to inspect prospective accommodation.

1.11 Telephone Reconnection Charges

1.11.1 Telephone reconnection charges for one installation will be refunded when a teacher has transferred and is eligible for transfer expenses.

Note: Receipts should be produced when claiming removal expenses.

Note: These provisions will be applied in accordance with any administrative conditions that were in effect at the commencement of this Agreement or modifications made to the administrative conditions made as a result of this Agreement. Nothing in these provisions will be read as extending any entitlement beyond that which existed at the commencement of this Agreement except as may be expressly agreed to by the Secretary for Education after consultation with the Association.

- 1.2 A change to a new RCLSE employed by a board not bound by this agreement will continue to be dealt with on a case-by-case basis, but will include grandparenting of total remuneration and coverage by this agreement while the transferred teachers remain employed as an RTLB with the new RTLB Cluster Lead School Employer board.
- 2.1 Where an RTLB Cluster Lead School Employer board (RCLSE) proposes to relinquish that role, the board will inform the Ministry of Education National Office of the proposal.
- 2.2 The board will inform the RTLBs it employs about the proposed relinquishment, and will consult those RTLBS on the proposed relinquishment, within 14 days of informing the Ministry of the proposal.

 - (e) is not otherwise agreed to be unsuitable.
- 2.7 Any position remaining unfilled after this process will be part of a normal appointment process (clause 3.2 of this Agreement refers).

- 2.8 Where an RTLB transfers to a new RCLSE as a result of the former RCLSE
- (a) relinquishing its role, the RTLB:
 - (b) Will be bound by the collective agreement which covers the new RCLSE.

- 2.10 RTLB employed in a fixed term position will be offered employment to a suitable position with the new lead RCLSE for a fixed term corresponding with the remaining period of their original fixed term position.
