INDIVIDUAL EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT PRIMARY TEACHERS

New employees – where a collective agreement is in force

- New employees who are or become members of NZEI Te Riu Roa and who perform the work covered by the Primary Teachers' Collective Agreement (the Collective Agreement) will be bound by that collective agreement.
- New employees who are not members of the union and who perform the work covered by the Collective Agreement must be offered the promulgated individual employment agreement.
- Before agreeing to the individual employment agreement and before the employee commences work, the employee must be advised that:
 - they are entitled to seek independent advice about the proposed employment agreement
 - the collective agreement exists and covers the work to be done by the employee
 - the employee may join the union, and how they can contact the unions, and
 - if the employee joins either union, they will be bound by the collective agreement.
 - they can obtain information about their entitlements under the Holidays Act 2003 from their union (if they are a member) and from the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment. Information about the Holidays Act and other minimum entitlements can also be found at www.employment.govt.nz.
- The employer must give the employee:
 - a copy of the collective agreement (it is available at <https://www.education.govt.nz/education-professionals/schools-year-0-13/people-and-employment>)

- a reasonable opportunity to seek independent advice. The employer must also consider any issues that the employee raises and respond to them, and
- If the employee agrees, the school board must inform NZEI Te Riu Roa as soon as practicable that the employee has entered into an individual employment agreement with the board
- If the parties wish to vary the promulgated individual employment agreement the Employer will need to obtain prior concurrence from the Ministry.

New employees – where a collective agreement is not in force

- Before agreeing to the individual employment agreement and before the employee commences work, the employee must be advised that:
 - they are entitled to seek independent advice about the agreement offered; and
 - they can obtain information about their entitlements under the Holidays Act 2003 from the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment. Information about the Holidays Act and other minimum entitlements can also be found at www.employment.govt.nz.
- The employer must also give the employee:
 - a copy of the individual employment agreement being offered, and
 - a reasonable opportunity to seek independent advice. The employer must also consider any issues that the employee raises and respond to them.
- If the parties wish to vary the promulgated individual employment agreement they will require prior concurrence from the Ministry.
